Notes

Note A. The Department for Enterprise has the power to refuse to register any name which in its opinion is undesirable (see Section 16 of the Registration of Business Names Act, 1918, as amended by section 2 (1) of the Registration of Business Names Act, 1954).

Note B. This statement must be signed:

- (1) In the case of a firm:
 - (a) By all the individuals who are partners and by a director or the secretary of every corporation which is a partner, or
 - (b) Provided that the statement is verified by a statutory declaration made by the signatory or signatories, by some individual who is a partner or by a director or the secretary of some corporation which is a partner;
- (2) In the case of a company by a director or the secretary:

This statement when signed must be in the case of any business before referred to be sent by post or delivered to the Companies Registry, Registries Building, Deemsters Walk, Bucks Road, Douglas, Isle of Man IM1 3AR within one month of commencing to carry on such business, and where the signature of the statement is required to be verified by statutory declaration, the statutory declaration must be sent or delivered with the statement.

Where the firm or company is only under liability to furnish some of these additional particulars the rest should be struck out.

Failure, without reasonable excuse, to furnish the required statement of particulars within the time specified will, in addition to any disability imposed by the Act, entail liability on conviction to a fine not exceeding £5000, and where a corporation is guilty of an offence under this Act, every director, secretary and officer of the corporation who is knowingly a party to the default will be guilty of a like offence and liable to a like penalty. Any statement which contains any matter which is false in any material particular to the knowledge of any person signing it will entail liability on conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding £5000, or to both such imprisonment and fine.

Note C. Section 2 of the Registration of Business Names Act provides as follows

“In the case of a peer or person usually known by a British title different from his surname, the title by which he is known shall be substituted in this Act for his surname.”

Note D. “References in this Act to a former first name or surname shall not, in the case of natural-born British subjects, include a former first name or surname where that name or surname has been changed or disused before the person bearing the name has attained the age of eighteen years, but, in the case of a woman who has been married, shall include the name or surname by which she was known previous to the marriage.”

Registration of Business Names Act, 1918, Section 4

"Where a firm, individual, or corporation having a place of business within the Isle of Man carries on the business wholly or mainly as nominee or trustee of or for another person, or other persons, or another corporation, or acts as general agent for any foreign firm, the first mentioned firm, individual or corporation shall be registered in manner provided by this Act, and in addition to the other particulars required to be furnished and registered there shall be furnished and registered the particulars mentioned in the schedule to this Act:

Provided that where the business is carried on by a trustee in bankruptcy or a receiver or manager appointed by any court, registration under this section shall not be necessary".
