1. I wish to revoke joint taxation for the current tax year
2. I wish to revoke joint taxation for the previous tax year only
3. I wish to revoke joint taxation for the current and previous tax year

NOTE:

- If you have selected option 2 above, then joint taxation will continue for the current year onwards.
- If your reason for revocation is separation from your spouse/civil partner, please do not complete this form but request and complete form R113. Form R113 is accompanied by a Guidance Note which gives further information about the effects on taxation of Separation and Divorce (GN 13).

Privacy Notice: To find out more about how we collect and use personal information, contact our office or visit our website www.gov.im/treasuryprivacynotice. We will send you a paper copy if you telephone us or write to us using the contact details provided on this form

DECLARATION: I understand that revocation of the current tax year will remain in force for future years until a new joint taxation election is made. Revocation of joint treatment will prevent unutilised allowances, deductions and reliefs being transferred, which may result in my income tax liability increasing.
