IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Economic Substance insert is required to be completed if the company is resident for tax purposes and has gross income from the relevant sector stated at the top in the accounting period covered by the income tax return and the company is exempt from compulsory online filing. If the company is not exempt from compulsory online filing, the online company income tax return must be completed.

Please refer to the 'Updated Economic Substance Guidance - Joint Guernsey Isle of Man and Jersey' on the Economic Substance page of our website for information about the economic substance requirements. Please refer to sections 6.1.5 and 6.12 of GN58 – 'Company Income Tax Return How to Complete Returns for Accounting Periods ending on or after 31 December 2019' on the Guidance Notes page of our website for further information about the questions asked on this form and the responses required. GN58 also contains further information about compulsory online filing.

Important: This insert is an integral part of the company's income tax return so all mandatory fields marked * must be completed. If any are not completed the return will not be accepted because it is incomplete.

Supporting Information Required

The following additional information should be provided with this form and the income tax return:

- A copy of the financial statements for the accounting period, including directors' report, auditor's report (if applicable) and all notes pages
- Confirmation of the basis of the calculation of the number of FTE qualified employees - of the company itself and of any service provider undertaking outsourced CIGA - and the nature of the engagement (employee, contractor etc.) and the qualifications taken into account.
- Additional information to demonstrate the adequate supervision measures in place between the company and any service provider undertaking outsourced CIGA, and that the outsourced CIGA is conducted in the Island.
- If the company has no premises in the Island, the nature of its physical presence in the Island and why that considered to be adequate in relation to the company's activities
- Any other information that the company considers to be material in determining that it has adequate substance in the Island for the accounting period. (e.g. why the directors have concluded that the company is an IP company not a High Risk IP company, why some board meetings were held outside the Island, why any activities carried on outside the Island are not CIGA, etc.)
- If a High Risk IP Company wishes to rebut the presumption that the economic substance requirement is not met, the information required by section 80G(1A) of the Income Tax Act 1970 must also be attached to the income tax return when it is submitted.
