  - (c) that such notice of the application as the court thinks appropriate has been given in the constituency for which the election was held;

and under the circumstances the court thinks it just that either that or any other person should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the act or omission, the High Court may make an order allowing the act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Act making it an illegal practice, payment or hiring; and thereupon no person shall be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the said act or omission.

Where, after the counting of the votes (including any re-count) is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, the returning officer shall forthwith decide between those candidates by lot, and proceed as if the candidate on whom the lot falls had received an additional vote.

- (3) A duplicate of such certificate shall be handed by the returning officer to each candidate elected.
- (4) If the number of candidates elected is less than there are vacancies to be filled up, or if no candidates be elected, the returning officer shall make a special return of the writ setting forth the facts.

PART 5 – DISPOSAL OF DOCUMENTS

49 Sealing up of ballot papers

- (1) On the completion of the counting at a contested election the returning officer shall seal up in separate packages the counted and rejected ballot papers.
- (2) The returning officer shall not open the sealed packets of tendered ballot papers or of counterfoils, or of the marked copies of the register of electors.

50 Delivery of documents to Clerk of the Rolls

- (1) The returning officer shall then (and in any case within 7 days of declaring the result of the poll) forward to the Clerk of the Rolls the following documents —
  - (a) the packets of ballot papers in his possession;

- (b) the ballot paper accounts and the statements of rejected ballot papers and of the result of the verification of the ballot paper accounts;
- (c) the tendered votes lists, the lists of votes marked by the presiding officer and the statements relating thereto;
- (d) the packets of counterfoils;
- (e) the packets containing marked copies of registers and lists of proxies;
- (f) the oaths of himself, the deputy returning officer, the presiding officers, poll clerks and counting clerks;
- (g) the nomination papers;<sup>46</sup>
- (h) the applications to be treated as an absent voter,<sup>47</sup>

endorsing on each packet a description of its contents, the date of the election to which they relate and the name of the constituency for which the election was held.<sup>48</sup>

51 Orders for production of documents

- (1) An order —
  - (a) for the inspection or production of any rejected ballot papers in the custody of the Clerk of the Rolls; or
  - (b) for the opening of a sealed packet of counterfoils or the inspection of any counted ballot papers in his custody, may be made —
    - (i) by the Keys, or
    - (ii) if satisfied by evidence on oath that the order is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation to ballot papers, or for the purpose of an election petition, by the High Court or a Deemster.

(2) An order under this rule may be made subject to conditions as to persons, time, place and mode of inspection, production or opening as the Keys or the High Court or Deemster making the order may think expedient.

(3) In making and carrying into effect an order for the opening of a packet of counterfoils or for the inspection of counted ballot papers, care shall be taken that the way in which the vote of any particular elector has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and that the vote has been declared by a competent court to be invalid.

(4) Where an order is made for the production by the Clerk of the Rolls of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by him or his agent of the document ordered in such manner as may be directed by that order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the specified election; and any endorsement on any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are what they are stated to be by the endorsement.

(5) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same printed number and having a number marked thereon in writing, shall be prima facie evidence that the elector whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the person who at the time of the election had affixed to his name in the register of electors the same number as the number written on the counterfoil.

(6) Save as by this rule provided, no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot papers in the possession of the Clerk of the Rolls or to open any sealed packets of counterfoils and certificates.

52 Retention and public inspection of documents

(1) The Clerk of the Rolls shall retain for a year all documents relating to an election forwarded to him in pursuance of these rules by a returning officer, and then, unless otherwise directed by order of the Keys or the High Court, shall cause them to be destroyed.

(2) The said documents, except ballot papers and counterfoils, shall be open to public inspection at such time and subject to such conditions as the Clerk of the Rolls may decide.

SCHEDULE 3

PROCEDURE ON ELECTION PETITION

Section 56(3)

1. Interpretation

In this Schedule —

“petition” means an election petition;

“the court” means the High Court.

2. Presentation and service of petition

(1) A petition may be presented by one or more of the following persons —

- (a) a person who voted as an elector at the election or who had a right so to vote;
- (b) a person claiming to have had a right to be elected or returned at the election; or
- (c) a person alleging himself to have been a candidate at the election.

(2) The respondent to a petition shall be —

- (a) if the petition complains of the conduct of a returning officer, the returning officer;

(b) in any other case, the member whose election or return is complained of.

(3) The petition shall —

- (a) be addressed to the court;
- (b) be in the prescribed form;
- (c) state the prescribed matters;
- (d) be signed by the petitioner, or all the petitioners if more than one;
- (e) be filed at the General Registry; and
- (f) be served in the prescribed manner.

(4) The Chief Registrar shall cause a copy of the petition to be sent to the returning officer of the constituency to which the petition relates, who shall forthwith publish it in that constituency.

3. Time for presentation or amendment of petition

(1) Subject to this paragraph, a petition shall be presented within 28 days after the return has been made to the Clerk of the Rolls of the member to whose election the petition relates.

(2) If the matter complained of in the petition is an alleged illegal payment, or any payment of money or other act made or done since the return has been made, by the member to whose election the petition relates or any agent of his or with the privity of the member, in pursuance or furtherance of the matter complained of, the petition may so far as respects such matter be filed within 28 days after the date of the payment or other act.

(3) If the petition is one complaining of no return, it shall be filed within 56 days of the issue of the writ of election.

(4) For the purposes of this paragraph, an allegation that an election is avoided under section 61 shall be treated as an allegation of corrupt practices, notwithstanding that the offences alleged are, or include, offences other than corrupt practices.

4. Security for costs etc.

(1) The petitioner shall in accordance with rules of court give security, in such amount (not exceeding the prescribed amount) as the Clerk of the Rolls directs, for all costs which may become payable by him in connection with the petition.

(2) Within the prescribed time the petitioner shall serve on the respondent —

- (a) a notice of the presentation of the petition, and of the nature of the proposed security, and
- (b) a copy of the petition.

(3) The respondent may in accordance with rules of court object to any security given by the petitioner on the ground that —

- (a) any surety is insufficient or dead, or cannot be found or identified, or
- (b) a person named as surety has not duly acknowledged the recognisance; and the objection shall be decided by the court.

(4) If no security is given as required by this paragraph, or any objection is allowed and not removed, no further proceedings shall be had on the petition.

5. Petition at issue

On the expiration of the time limited for objections, or, after objection made, on the objection being disallowed or removed, whichever last happens, the petition shall be at issue.

6. Trial of petition

(1) A petition shall be tried in open court without a jury, and notice of the time and place of trial shall be given in the prescribed manner, not less than 14 days before the day of trial.

(2) The trial of a petition shall be proceeded with notwithstanding the acceptance by the respondent of an office of profit under the Crown or under the Government of the Island, and notwithstanding the prorogation of the Keys.

(3) On the trial of a petition, unless the court otherwise directs, any charge of a corrupt or illegal practice may be gone into, and evidence in relation thereto received, before any proof has been given of agency on behalf of any candidate in respect of the corrupt or illegal practice.

(4) On the trial of a petition complaining of an undue election and claiming the seat or office for some person, the respondent may give evidence to prove that that person was not duly elected, in the same manner as if he had presented a petition against the election of that person.

(5) If it appears during the hearing of a petition that there is an equality of votes between any candidates at the election, and that the addition of a vote would have entitled any of these candidates to be declared elected, then —

- (a) any decision under the provisions as to equality of votes in the election rules shall, in so far as it determines the question between those candidates, be effective also for the purposes of the petition; and
- (b) in so far as that question is not determined by such a decision the court shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one on whom the lot then falls had received an additional vote.

7. Witnesses

(1) The Attorney General shall obey any direction given him by the court with respect to the summoning and examination of any witness to give evidence at the trial.

(2) The Attorney General shall, without any direction from the court, cause any person appearing to him to be able to give material evidence as to the subject of the trial to attend the trial and shall with the leave of the court examine him as a witness.

(3) A person called as a witness respecting an election before the court shall not be excused from answering any question relating to any offence at, or connected with, the election, on the ground that the answer thereto may criminate or tend to criminate that person or the spouse or civil partner of that person, or on the ground of privilege; but —

- (a) a witness who answers truly all questions which he is required by the court to answer shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Deemster presiding at the court stating that the witness has so answered; and
- (b) an answer by a person to a question put by, or before, the court shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceeding for perjury in respect of the evidence, be in any proceeding, civil or criminal, admissible in evidence against that person or the spouse or civil partner of that person.<sup>49</sup>

(4) The giving or refusal to give a certificate of indemnity to a witness by a court shall be final and conclusive.

(5) Where a person has received a certificate of indemnity in relation to an election, and any legal proceeding is at any time instituted against him for any corrupt or illegal practice committed by him previously to the date of the certificate at or in relation to the election, or any illegal payment or hiring or contravention of section 39 so committed, the court having cognizance of the case shall on production of the certificate stay the proceeding, and may in its discretion award to the said person such costs as he may have been put to in the proceeding.

(6) Nothing in this paragraph shall relieve a person receiving a certificate of indemnity from any incapacity under this Act or from any proceedings to enforce that incapacity (other than a criminal prosecution).

(7) The reasonable expenses incurred by any person in appearing to give evidence at the trial of a petition, according to the scale allowed to witnesses on the trial of civil actions, may be allowed to him by a certificate of the court.

8. Conclusion of trial of petition

(1) At the conclusion of the trial of a petition the court shall determine whether the member whose petition, election or return is complained of, or any, and what, other person was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall forthwith certify in writing the determination to the Speaker, and the determination so certified shall be final to all intents and purposes.

(2) Where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt or illegal practice having been committed at the election, the court shall, in addition to giving a certificate, and at the same time, make a report to the Speaker as required by paragraph 9 and also stating whether corrupt or illegal practices have, or whether there is reason to believe that corrupt or illegal practices have, extensively prevailed at the election.

(3) The court may at the same time make a special report to the Speaker as to matters arising in the course of the trial an account of which in the judgment of the court ought to be submitted to the Keys.

(4) The Keys on being informed of a certificate and any report of the court, shall order the certificate and report (if any) to be entered in their proceedings or minutes and shall give the necessary direction for confirming or altering the return, or for reporting to the Governor the vacancy in pursuance of section 5 with a view to issuing a writ for a new election, or for carrying the determination into execution as the circumstances may require; and where the court makes a special report, the Keys may make such order in respect of that report as they think proper.

9. Further provisions as to report under paragraph 8

(1) The report of the court under paragraph 8 shall state —

- (a) whether any corrupt or illegal practice has or has not been proved to have been committed by or with the knowledge and consent of any candidate at the election, and the nature of the corrupt or illegal practice;
- (b) whether any of the candidates has been guilty by his agents of any corrupt or illegal practice in reference to the election;
- (c) the names of all persons (if any) who have been proved at trial to have been guilty of any corrupt or illegal practice and whether they have been furnished with certificates of indemnity.

(2) Before any report is made against a person who is neither a party to the petition nor a candidate on behalf of whom the seat is claimed by the petition, the court shall first —

- (a) cause notice to be given to him, and
- (b) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, give him an opportunity of being heard by himself and of calling evidence in his defence to show why he should not be so reported.

(3) The report shall be laid before the Attorney General with a view to his instituting or directing a prosecution against such persons as have not received certificates of indemnity, if the evidence should, in his opinion, be sufficient to support a prosecution.

(4) This paragraph is subject to section 32(4) and (5).

10. Withdrawal of petition

(1) A petitioner shall not withdraw a petition without the leave of the court on special application, made in the prescribed manner.

(2) The application shall not be made until the prescribed notice of the intention to make it has been given in the constituency to which the petition relates.

(3) Where there are more petitioners than one, the application shall not be made except with the consent of all the petitioners.

(4) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

11. Evidence required for withdrawal of petition

(1) Before leave for the withdrawal of a petition is granted, there shall be produced affidavits by all the parties to the petition and their advocates, but the court may on cause shown dispense with the affidavit of any particular person if it seems to the court on special grounds to be just so to do.

(2) Each affidavit shall state that, to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief, no agreement or terms of any kind whatsoever has or have been made, and no undertaking has been entered into, in relation to the withdrawal of the petition; but if any lawful agreement has been made with respect to the withdrawal of the petition, the affidavit shall set forth that agreement, and shall make the foregoing statement subject to what appears from the affidavit.

(3) The affidavits of the applicant and his advocate shall further state the ground on which the petition is sought to be withdrawn.

(4) Copies of the said affidavits shall be delivered to the Attorney General a reasonable time before the application for the withdrawal is heard, and the court may hear the Attorney General or his assistant, or other representative, in opposition to the allowance of the withdrawal of the petition, and may receive the evidence on oath of any person or persons whose evidence the Attorney General or his assistant or other representative may consider material.

(5) Where more than one advocate is concerned for the petitioner or respondent, whether as agent for another advocate or otherwise, the affidavit shall be made by all such advocates.

12. Corrupt withdrawal

If any person makes any agreement or enters into any undertaking in relation to the withdrawal of a petition, and the agreement or undertaking is for the withdrawal of the petition in consideration —

- (a) of any payment, or
- (b) that the seat or office shall at any time be vacated, or
- (c) of the withdrawal of any other petition, or is (whether lawful or unlawful) not mentioned in the said affidavits, he shall be guilty of an offence and liable on conviction on information to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to a fine, or to both.

13. Substitution of new petitioner

(1) On the hearing of the application for leave to withdraw, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner, and the court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

(2) If the proposed withdrawal is in the opinion of the court the result of any agreement or undertaking prohibited by section 39 or induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, the court may by order direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may be incurred by the substituted petitioner, and that, to the extent of the sum named in the security, the original petitioner and his sureties shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner.

(3) If the court does not so direct, then security to the same amount as would be required in the case of a new petitioner and subject to the like conditions shall be given on behalf of the substituted petitioner before he proceeds with his petition and within the prescribed time after the order of substitution.

(4) Subject as aforesaid, a substituted petitioner shall as nearly as may be stand in the same position and be subject to the same liabilities as the original petitioner.

14. Report on withdrawal

If a petition is withdrawn, the court shall make a report to the Speaker stating whether in the opinion of the court the withdrawal of the petition was —

- (a) the result of any agreement or undertaking, or
  - (b) in consideration of any matter specified in paragraph 12 or for any other consideration,
- and, if so, shall state the circumstances attending the withdrawal.

15. Withdrawal after double return

(1) Where —

- (a) a petition complains of a double return to a writ for an election; and
- (b) the respondent has given notice to the court that he does not intend to oppose the petition; and
- (c) no party has been admitted under the following provisions to defend the petition; and
- (d) there is no petition complaining of the other member returned on the double return, the petitioner may withdraw by notice addressed to the court, who upon receipt of the notice shall report the fact of the withdrawal to the Speaker.

(2) The Keys shall thereupon give the necessary directions for amending the double return by striking out the certificate by which the respondent declining to oppose the petition was returned, or otherwise as the case may require.

16. Abatement of petition

(1) A petition shall be abated by the death of a sole petitioner or of the survivor of several petitioners.

(2) The abatement shall not affect the liability of the petitioner or any other person to the payment of costs previously incurred.

(3) On the abatement the prescribed notice thereof shall be given in the constituency to which the petition relates; and within the prescribed time after the notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the court in the prescribed manner and at the prescribed time to be substituted as a petitioner; and the court may, if it thinks fit, substitute him accordingly.

(4) Security shall be given on behalf of a petitioner so substituted, as in the case of a new petition.

17. Withdrawal and substitution of respondents before trial

(1) If before the trial of a petition a respondent other than a returning officer —

(a) gives the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition, or dies; or

(b) becomes a member of the Council, or the Keys have resolved that his seat is vacant, the prescribed notice thereof shall be given in the constituency to which the petition relates, and, within the prescribed time after the notice is given, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election may apply to the court to be admitted as a respondent to oppose the petition, and shall be admitted accordingly, except that the number of persons so admitted shall not exceed 3.

(2) A respondent who has given the prescribed notice that he does not intend to oppose the petition shall not be allowed to appear or act as a party against the petition in any proceedings thereon, and he shall not sit or vote in the Keys until the Keys have been informed of the report on the petition.

(3) Where a respondent to a petition has given the prescribed notice in the prescribed time and manner, the court shall report that fact to the Speaker.

18. Costs of petition

(1) All costs of and incidental to the presentation of a petition and the proceedings consequent thereon, except as otherwise provided for, shall be defrayed by the parties to the petition in such manner and in such proportions as the court may determine; and in particular any costs which in the opinion of the court have been caused by vexatious conduct, unfounded allegations or unfounded objections on the part either of the petitioner or of the respondent, and any needless expense incurred or caused on the part of the petitioner or respondent, may be ordered to be defrayed by the parties by whom it has been incurred or caused, whether or not they are on the whole successful.

(2) If a petitioner neglects or refuses for 3 months after demand to pay to any person summoned as a witness on his behalf or to the respondent any sum certified to be due to him for his costs, and the neglect or refusal is within one year after the demand proved to the satisfaction of the court, every person who under this Act entered into a recognisance relating to the petition shall be held to have made default in the recognisance, and the court shall thereupon certify the recognisances to be forfeited and grant execution against every such person in favour of the witness or respondent, as the case may be, in respect of the sum due to him.

19. Further provisions as to costs

- (1) Where upon the trial of a petition it appears to the court —
- (a) that a corrupt practice has not been proved to have been committed in reference to the election by or with the knowledge and consent of the respondent to the petition, and
  - (b) that the respondent took all reasonable means to prevent corrupt practices being committed on his behalf,
- the court may make one or more orders with respect to the payment either of the whole or such part of the costs of the petition as the court may think right as provided by subparagraph (2).

(2) If it appears to the court that any person or persons is or are proved, whether by providing money or otherwise, to have been extensively engaged in corrupt practices, or to have encouraged or promoted extensive corrupt practices in reference to the election, the court may, after giving that person, or those persons, an opportunity of being heard by an advocate and examining and cross-examining witnesses to show cause why the order should not be made, order the whole or part of the costs to be paid by that person or those persons or any of them; and may order that if the costs cannot be recovered from one or more of those persons, they shall be paid by some other of those persons or by either of the parties to the petition.

(3) Where any person appears to the court to have been guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice, the court may, after giving that person an opportunity of making a statement to show why the order should not be made, order the whole or any part of the costs of, or incidental to, any proceeding before the court in relation to the said person to such person or persons as the court may direct.

20. Appeals and jurisdiction

(1) No appeal shall lie without the special leave of the court from the decision of the court on any question of law, whether on appeal or otherwise, under the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, and if leave to appeal is granted the decision of the court on the appeal shall be final and conclusive.

(2) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of rules of court, the court shall, so far as may be, observe the principles, practices and rules on which select committees of the Keys used to act in dealing with election petitions.

(3) The court shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, have the same powers, jurisdiction and authority with respect to a petition and the proceedings thereon as if the petition were an ordinary action within its jurisdiction.
