Now endorse the rear of the photograph with the wording "I certify that this is a true likeness of (insert name of applicant)" and add your signature and the date.

Notes

To take or apply for a theory test:

- You must be aged 16 years or over.
   Photographic identification must be provided, for example you may use your Isle of Man driving licence (provisional or full), valid passport or countersigned photograph.
   The person countersigning Part B of this form:
   must be resident in the Isle of Man must not be a member of your family (either a blood relative or connected by marriage) must be a Member of Tynwald, Ministèr of Religion, Advocate, Bank Officer, Civil Servant, School Teacher, College Lecturer, Police Officer or Doctor or another professionally qualified person.

must have personally known you for 2 years.

You cannot take a test:

if the correct fee has not been paid in full

the candidate's identity cannot be proven if an out of date identification is produced if you turn up after the scheduled appointment time

if a candidate abuses a member of staff

the candidate turns up on the wrong day or wrong time the candidate is not dressed or presented in a suitable manner, for example their clothes, shoes or hands are covered in oil/tar/cement/dirt/etc.

Consideration will be given to:

a written application can be made if claiming exceptional circumstances, for example medical emergencies if a test is cancelled due to weather conditions, the fee is not forfeited if an examiner fails to turn up for the test, the fee is not forfeited no refunds will be given if less than 7 working days notice are given

A written appeal can be looked at if there are exceptional circumstances

Candidates should be aware:

This is a computer based test and in view of the requirements for hazard perception testing, there is no paper alternative available to candidates. When taking the test, answers can only be selected and de-selected using the computer mouse, there is no option to use a keyboard.

The test is made up of two parts, a multiple choice question paper and a hazard perception test. You must pass both elements at the same test session in order to pass your theory test.

You must pass the appropriate theory test for a car or a bike before you apply for a practical driving test for a vehicle in the same group. (This does not apply if you intend to drive only a vehicle in group K, i.e. pedestrian-controlled vehicles or mowing machines).

The Pass Certificate is valid for a period of 2 years commencing on the date on which the theory test was taken.

Please supply details of any special needs or any form of reading/writing difficulty for example dyslexia or other reading difficulties you may have at the time you make your application by completing the appropriate section in Part A of the form.

If you need to cancel your test for any reason, you must give 7 days' notice or you will lose your fee.

If you fail the test you must wait 7 days before re-applying.

Please note the charge for this test includes a non refundable administrative charge of £20. If you cancel your test with 7 or more working days' notice, you will only receive £24 back.

Please note that some or all of the information you have provided may be passed to other driving licence issuing authorities or law enforcement agencies in order to prevent or detect crime.
