Dear Hobby Potter

Please read the licence conditions before completing the application form overleaf, should you wish to apply for a recreational potting licence to fish for lobsters & crab.

Licence Conditions:

1. A recreational potter must not fish for crab or lobster in any part of the Isle of Man territorial sea other than within the three-mile area.
2. A recreational potter must not fish for crab or lobster from a vessel other than a recreational fishing vessel (where using a vessel to recreationally pot fish).
3. A recreational potter must not fish for crab or lobster from a vessel that is issued a commercial sea fishing licence by either —
 - (a) the Department
 - (b) the Department of Agriculture, Environment and Rural Affairs, a department of the Northern Ireland Executive;
 - (c) the Marine Management Organisation, a body established further to section 1 of the Marine and Coastal Access Act 2009 (of Parliament);
 - (d) the States of Jersey;
 - (e) the States of Guernsey;
 - (f) the Scottish Government;
 - (g) the Welsh Government; or
 - (h) a Member State of the European Union
4. This recreational sea fishing licence granted under regulation 4 of the Sea Fisheries (Licensing) (Recreational Crab And Lobster) Regulations 2022¹ is non-transferable.
5. The maximum number of pots which may be used by a recreational potter is 5.
6. A recreational potter must not take, kill, land or have in his or her possession in any one day more than — (a) 2 lobsters; (b) 5 crabs.
7. Despite paragraph 6, a recreational potter may not take more than 7 lobsters per week (being a period of 7 consecutive days).
8. A recreational potter must not land, or have in his or her possession at any time, a crab or lobster, alive or dead, that measures below the minimum landing size specified in the Sea Fisheries (Technical Measures) Bye-laws 2003².
9. A recreational potter must not sell, expose for sale or offer for sale any lobster or crab.
10. A recreational potter must not lift, raise, haul, take fish from, re-bait or in any way use or interfere with a pot belonging to another person, without obtaining the Department's prior permission, and must not permit anyone else to do so.

² Sea Fisheries (Technical Measures) Bye-laws 2003 is available online under the heading secondary legislation at www.gov.im/legislationpolicy

11. A recreational potter must not use any pot unless —

- (a) it has at least one unobstructed escape gap located on the lower half of the pot and, in the case of a parlour pot, in the parlour; and
- (b) it is so designed and constructed that each escape gap is of sufficient size that there may easily passed through the escape gap and completely inserted into the pot, whether the pot is wet or dry, a rigid box shaped gauge of at least 78 millimetres wide, 44 millimetres high and 100 millimetres long.

12. A recreational potter must not use a stock cage for storing any sea fish.

13. A recreational potter must not use a pot unless it is securely attached to at least one surface marker by means of rope that is sufficiently weighted so that no section of rope may float on the sea surface.

14. A recreational potter must not use a surface marker unless it is —

- (a) an inflatable buoy specifically designed for marking the position of equipment in the sea;
- (b) at least 200 millimetres in diameter or of A0 Size;

- (d) rigged to float on the surface of the water;
- (e) maintained in good order; and
- (f) free from obstruction and not attached to any other buoyant article.

15. A surface marker must display the recreational sea fishing licence number of the person it belongs to, in such a way so that the number —

- (a) is displayed as high above the water as possible;
- (b) so that it is clearly visible and legible upon inspection;
- (c) is written in a colour contrasting with the surface on which it is displayed so as to be clearly legible;
- (d) is the only recreational sea fishing licence number displayed.

16. A recreational sea fishing licence number displayed on a surface marker must not be defaced, altered or allowed to become illegible.

17. A recreational potter must not take, kill, land or possess in the Island or at sea —

- (e) an edible crab carrying spawn attached to its tail or other exterior part of the crab;
- (f) an edible crab which has recently cast its shell;
- (g) a lobster carrying spawn attached to its tail or some other exterior part of the lobster if the lobster's condition show that when it was taken, it was carrying the spawn; or
- (h) a mutilated lobster or V notched lobster.

18. A recreational potter must not possess —

- (i) a detached claw of an edible crab; or
- (j) a detached tail or claw of a lobster.

19. A recreational potter who —

- (a) unintentionally catches —
 - (i) a crab or lobster of a description specified in paragraph 6 or paragraph 15; or
 - (ii) a detached claw or tail of a description specified in paragraph 16; or
