Date: 6th March 1986

Income Tax Office Accommodation Changes

Work will commence on 14th March 1986 to alter the accommodation on the first floor of Government Offices which will eventually house the whole of the Income Tax Division. During the 8 weeks that it will take to complete the work the staff of the Division, other than Collection Section and Company Section, will be moved into the building in Hill Street vacated by the Board of Social Security.

To achieve the, move into and eventually out of Hill Street, it will be necessary to close the general enquiry and assessing sections for a few days. The first of the periods will be on Thursday 13th March 1986 and Friday 14th March 1986. Thereafter, until further notice, general enquiries should be made to Hill Street.

Throughout, collection matters including the payment of income tax should continue to be made at the existing counter facilities on the ground floor of Government Offices.

Every effort will be made to keep to a minimum any inconvenience that may be caused during this period.
