

CHARTERHOUSE APPOINTS SIX TO SALES

Expansion Underlines Strong Growth

Isle of Man, BRITISH ISLES, March 03 2008 - Charterhouse is pleased to announce the promotion of Liam Blackmore to the role of UK sales manager for FPS services. Liam has been with Charterhouse for more than five years and has a wealth of experience in the recruitment industry.

This promotion further strengthens Charterhouse's UK sales team which has experienced additional expansion across the UK. Sally Scott, Simon Yates, Martin Valance, James Richardson and Alain Teboul all recently joined the team as business development managers with positions in Birmingham, Leeds, Scotland, Manchester and London.

Charterhouse's primary market is the UK recruitment industry and has been developing products and services that offer professional and compliant solutions to temporary workers and their recruitment companies since 1989. The focus of the UK team is to develop business relationships with recruitment agencies to promote Charterhouse's FPS Umbrella service. The development of the UK team recognises the growth of FPS and the move Charterhouse has made into immigration and tax services.

"These new roles signify an expansion of our sales team to provide coverage across the UK and further strengthen the offering of additional service to our clients including an umbrella service, immigration advice and assistance and tax services," said Sandra Robertson, Charterhouse operations director.
