

Application for National Insurance credits for persons who did not qualify for child benefit because their income was too high

Notes

Please complete this form if you claimed child benefit in any tax year, but you were not awarded benefit because your income was above the upper income threshold for that year, and you want child benefit National Insurance credits to protect your National Insurance record.

Please note that National Insurance credits can only be awarded for the youngest (or only) child in your family until they reach the age of 12. Please send us your application after the end of the tax year for which you are applying for credits.
