

Electronic Logbook (E-Log) QUICK GUIDE IoM.

(Some details may differ depending on the provider of your Electronic Logbook)

Starting a Trip

Double click on E-Log icon on desktop

Type in username and password (as provided), then click OK

Departure

Make sure all details are Ok and correct i.e., Port, Date etc.

Select fishing gear to be used

Select anticipated activity e.g. fishing

Save

Send Receive (enter password) Ok

After message has been sent, click on Fishing Trip

Complete the Departure BEFORE leaving port.

Trip Info (FAR)

+Add Tow

Check date

Save

Click on Gps (green world symbol) if enabled OR enter Statistical rectangle (e.g. 37E5) and Division 27 7 a (e.g. VIIa). Enter Latitude and Longitude (E.g. 54 32 10N 004 32 21W).

Select Economic zone Isle of Man

Input the total duration of your fishing activity in minutes (or hours) depending on your Elog provider.

Input the number of tows you made during your fishing activity.

Fill out fish quantity etc

Save

Export

Send Receive (enter password) Ok

After message has been sent, click on Fishing Trip

The days' FAR info must be sent before midnight and also when crossing into or out of the Isle of Man's territorial waters

Prior Notification (only if required)

Enter Date, Time and Port (for time, left button=hours, and right button=mins)

Estimated Arrival

Send Receive (enter password) Ok

After message has been sent, click on Fishing Trip

End of Fishing

Enter Date and Time

End of Fishing

Send Receive (enter password) Ok

After message has been sent, click on Fishing Trip

End of Fishing to be completed BEFORE entering port.

Arrival Message (RTP) – complete when you have entered into a port.

Enter Date, Time and Reason

Port Arrival

Send Receive (enter password) Ok

After message has been sent, should say "The fishing trip will be closed"

If not, click Send Receive again, re-enter password Ok until it completes the trip.