Section 4 Evidence of Domestic Violence

In this section we ask for information and documentary evidence to satisfy us that you are a victim of domestic violence. You must answer the relevant questions and provide evidence from independent and objective sources. The documents must relate to violence committed against you by your partner and/or by their family. Where available the evidence must come from the sources detailed below but you may also provide evidence from other sources. We do not accept witness statements by your friends or family, or letters from official sources that only provide unproven reports.

Have any of the legal actions described in a), b) and c) below been taken against the person

Yes

No

If 'Yes' please provide relevant documentary evidence and tick one or more of the boxes immediately below to show which you are providing.

a) An injunction, a non-molestation order or other protection order (other than a ex-parte or interim order). Where the order refers to any other undertakings made in writing by either you or the person who committed the violence you must provide these.

b) A relevant court conviction.

c) A relevant police caution. This should include the full name, date of birth and nationality of the person who has committed the violence, as well as their address at the time of the incident, and now, if different; and the date, time and place of the incident in respect of which the caution was issued or a prosecution is taking place.

If you are not able to provide any of the evidence listed above you should provide at least two types of evidence listed at a) to f) below. Tick the relevant boxes to show which you are providing.

a) A medical report from a hospital doctor or GMC register family practitioner (GP) who has examined you confirming that the injuries are consistent with being the victim of domestic violence. The report must include the doctors GMC registration number and must provide the date of your first registration, the dates of visits in which domestic violence was reported, and an extract from the record of these details.

b) An undertaking given to a court that the person(s) who committed the violence will not approach you.

c) A police report confirming that, because of a domestic violence incident they attended the address at which the incident took place. A copy of the incident log must be provided. It must show the address at which the incident took place.

d) A letter from Health and Social Care confirming its involvement in connection with domestic violence committed against you.

e) A letter of support or a report from a domestic violence support organisation/refuge.

f) Other documentary evidence—if you are unable to provide any evidence as listed above please explain the reasons for this in the space overleaf and list any other evidence you are providing. Continue on a spare sheet and enclose it with this form if you need more space.

You must also provide

A letter signed by you indicating whether you are still living with your partner and, if the marriage or relationship has broken down, whether domestic violence was the reason for this.

Please describe the incident(s) of domestic violence against you, including the dates, times and places of the incident(s). Provide full details of the incident(s) in a letter and enclose it with this form.

Did anyone other than your partner commit domestic violence against you? If 'Yes' please provide their names and relationship to you below

Section 9

Documentary Evidence

You must provide the documents specified below which are relevant to your application. If you do not, we reserve the right to decide your application on the basis of the information and documents provided.

Tick the relevant boxes to show the documents you are providing. They must be originals.

Please note that, in some cases, we may have to ask for other documents in addition to those specified in this form.

Passport and immigration documents

Your current passport, with two clear pages back to back. If you first entered the UK/Isle of Man on a previous passport, please also provide this passport.

Current or previous passports (where relevant) of each child under 18 applying for indefinite leave to remain in the Isle of Man with you. Current passport should have two clear pages back to back.

Your biometric Residence Permit if you have been issued with one.

Children's birth certificates

A full birth certificate (one which shows the parents' names) for each child under 18 of your present marriage or civil partnership or relationship who is applying for indefinite leave to remain in the Isle of Man with you.

Evidence of previous cohabitation with your partner

Letters or other correspondence as evidence that you and your partner lived together from the time you were granted leave to enter or remain in the UK as a partner until the relationship broke down.

Evidence of domestic violence

Evidence of domestic violence as listed in section 4. If you are unable to provide any such evidence, you must provide an explanation of why you cannot do so.

Evidence of relationship with your partner

A letter from you stating whether you are still living with your partner and, if the marriage or relationship has broken down, whether domestic violence was the reason for this.

Evidence of destitution

Letters or other documents as evidence that you are destitute e.g. from the local authority or agency supporting you confirming that they have assessed you and that for their purposes in providing support to you, they accept that you are destitute at the time of this application.

If you are receiving support from a third party, e.g. family and friends, you must provide a letter confirming what support arrangements are in place, together with documents to prove your inability to pay the application fee.

Please note that the Isle of Man Immigration Service will decide whether you are destitute for the purposes of not paying the application fee.

Section 10
