- (1) In this Act “gaming”, subject to subsections (2) and (3), means the playing of a game of chance for winnings in money or money’s worth, whether or not any person playing the game is at risk of losing any money or money’s worth.
- (2) Where apart from this subsection the playing of a game of chance would constitute gaming and also constitutes a lottery, then if —
 - (a) in so far as it is a lottery, it is a lottery promoted as mentioned in section 30, 31 or 32, or it is a lottery which is designated under section 1 of the National Lottery Act 1999, and¹
 - (b) each winner of a prize is ascertained by reference to not more than 3 determining factors, each of those factors being either the result of a draw or other determination or the outcome of an event,the playing of the game shall not constitute gaming for the purposes of this Act.

- (2A) Subsection (2)(b) does not apply to a lottery mentioned in section 34A except so far as any conditions prescribed under paragraph (b) of that section so provide.²
- (3) In this Act “gaming” does not include the making of bets by way of pool betting.
- (4) In this section “game of chance” does not include any athletic game or sport but, with that exception, includes a game of chance and skill combined and a pretended game of chance or of chance and skill combined.

(4) The Commission shall refuse the application if it is satisfied that it is made on grounds which —
