SINGLE PARENT ADDITIONAL PERSONAL ALLOWANCE CLAIM FORM

Isle of Man income tax legislation enables single parents to claim the Additional Personal Allowance.

Who can claim?

A widowed, divorced, separated or single parent resident in the Isle of Man, who must not be living with another person as a married couple or in a civil partnership, and has a qualifying child living with them for all or part of the income tax year. The income tax year starts on 6th April and ends on the following 5th April.

What is a qualifying child?

The child or stepchild of the person who is making the claim, or a child who is wholly maintained by this person ("the claimant") at their own expense. The child should be either:

- under the age of 16 years, or
- if 16 years of age or over and under the age of 19 years, receiving full-time education. This also includes training by any person/employer, for any trade, profession or vocation where the child is required to devote the whole of his or her time for a minimum of two years.

Please note

- The claimant can only have one additional personal allowance, regardless of the number of qualifying children with him or her in the year.
- Where the claimant, due to their circumstances (eg separation), is eligible for the allowance for only part of the year, the allowance will be reduced accordingly.

If you think you are eligible for this allowance, please complete the form overleaf and return it to the above address as soon as possible. If you have any questions, please contact the Division.
