Introduction
This document sets out Minimum Standards for Adult Placement Agencies, which form the basis on which the Department of Health and Social Care (DHSC) will determine whether Adult Placements meet the needs of the people who use them.

Regulatory Context
The Standards are published by the DHSC in accordance with sections 35, 36 and 37 of the Regulation of Care Act 2013.

Under the Regulation of Care Act the DHSC when performing its functions and making decisions about compliance with the Act and any Regulations or when making judgements about the quality of the service and/or the suitability of that service to continue being registered, must consider the minimum standards to the extent that they apply to that particular service.

Principles and Values
The DHSC considers that the following principles are the rights of all people and are fundamental to achieving a quality service:

Dignity
- To be treated with dignity and respect at all times.
- To enjoy a full range of social relationships.

Privacy
- To have privacy and property respected and to be free from unnecessary intrusion.

Choice
- To make informed choices, while recognising the rights of other people to do the same.
- To know about the range of choices.

Safety
- To feel safe and secure in all aspects of life; to enjoy safety, but not be over protected
- To be free from exploitation and abuse.

Realising Potential
- To have the opportunity to achieve, to make full use of the resources that are available and to make the most of life.

Equality and Diversity
- To live an independent life, rich in purpose, meaning and personal fulfilment.
- To be valued for ethnic background, language, culture and faith.
- To be treated equally and to be cared for in an environment which is free from bullying, harassment and discrimination.
- To be able to complain effectively without fear of victimisation.

Aims
Adult Placement offers service users (aged 18 years or over) an alternative and highly flexible form of accommodation and care or support inside or outside the home which is provided by ordinary individuals or families in the local community. This alternative, which enables the service user to share in the life and activities of the Adult Placement Carer, is valued by both service users and service commissioners. Adult placement enables a wide range of vulnerable people who need support to live independent lives, promotes their health and well-being, and reduces the need for hospitalisation or admission to a residential care home.

The range of placements can cover:

- Long term placements and short breaks (either regular or one-off emergency placements that last for a few hours or a few weeks).
- Different levels of contact with the service users own family and adult placement carers who may either support or replace the family’s role.
- Different care groupings (people with learning disability, physical/sensory impairment, mental health problems or dementia).
- Different age groups.
- Rehabilitation.

The Department of Health and Social Care wishes adult placement to continue to expand as an option available to those who may benefit from this type of service and believes that the best way to achieve this aim is through regulation of Adult Placement Agencies.

Approach

The Minimum Standards for Adult Placement Agencies and the regulatory framework, within which they operate, should also be viewed in the context of the DHSC’s overall policy objectives for adult services. These Standards focus on key processes that agencies must follow to ensure that the outcomes for service users in adult placements which are set out in the Standards are met. The Standards together with the Act, Registration Regulations and any other applicable legislation cover the main processes and documents that underpin the effectiveness of the Adult Placement Agency. These standards represent minimum standards and providers should seek to exceed these to further improve the quality of the service.

Regulators will look for evidence that the requirements set down in the Standards and Regulations are met through information supplied by the Adult Placement Agency including:

- discussions with the Adult Placement Agency manager and workers;
- inspection of records and files;
- written policies and procedures.

In addition, Regulators will routinely seek evidence through discussion with a percentage of Adult Placement Carers and the service users placed with them and through direct observation of life in the placement.
Definitions

Abuse
Abuse is a violation of an individual’s human and civil rights by any other person or persons. Abuse may consist of a single act or repeated acts. Abuse can occur in any relationship and may result in significant harm to, or exploitation of, the person subjected to it. Abuse may comprise physical abuse, sexual abuse, psychological abuse, financial or material abuse, neglect or acts of omission and discriminatory abuse (see “No Secrets”, Department of Health, 1999 for full details).

Adult Placement
Short or long-term accommodation and care or support provided to a maximum at any one time, of three adults, placed through and supported by an Adult Placement Agency, by an Adult Placement Carer approved by the Agency. Adult Placements may include:

• accommodation with support, in the family home (habitual residence) of an adult placement carer;
• respite care, with or without personal care; inside the adult placement carer’s home;

Adult Placement Carer
A person who, under the terms of a Carer Agreement entered into with an Adult Placement Agency, provides, or intends to provide, care or support with accommodation in the adult placement carer’s home) for no more than three service users at any one time.

Adult Placement Agency
An Agency regulated under the Regulation of Care Act 2013 managed either by the DHSC or an independent (profit-making or non-profit making) body, who is responsible for recruiting, assessing, training and supporting adult placement carers for taking referrals, matching and placing service users with adult placement carers and for supporting and monitoring the placement.

Adult Placement Worker

Adult Placement Approval Panel
A group of people independent of but appointed by the Adult Placement Agency to approve applications from prospective adult placement carers on the basis of an assessment report presented by the adult placement worker.

Assessment
Collection and interpretation of information to determine an individual’s need for health, personal and social care and support services, undertaken with the individual, his/her representative and relevant professionals.

Care Management
Created December 2016
Implemented January 2017
Review date December 2020
A system for organising the assessment and re-assessment of individuals’ needs and the subsequent planning and delivery of care services to service users by the DHSC, and Community Psychiatric Nurses, psychiatrists and other NHS personnel under Care Programme Approach (CPA) for people with mental health problems. All parts of care management should be carried out in full consultation with individual service users and their carers.

Care Plan

A written statement, regularly updated, including a summary of assessed needs and setting out the support and/or care that is required/ how it will be delivered and by whom; including any health and social care services that a service user receives. Care plans should always include a review date but may also be reviewed outside of that date as the service users’ needs change.

The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

The DBS enables employers to check whether prospective employees have a criminal record. It provides information in the form of a Disclosure. Standard disclosures contain details of all convictions on record (including ‘spent’ convictions - i.e. those that happened some time ago and normally no longer need to be revealed as specified in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974) plus details of any cautions, reprimands or warnings.

Enhanced disclosures contain the above information plus any information held by local police forces about an individual. The DBS also carries out any necessary checks that an applicant is not listed on any of the lists held about people considered unsuitable to work with vulnerable adults or children (see below). The IOM vetting bureau undertakes the initial collection of information via the disclosure application form that is completed by the individual requiring the check. In addition the DBS operate 2 barred lists; one for adults and one for children. These lists merged the previous POVA, POCA and List 99. Employers have specific legal responsibilities with regard to referring employees to be placed on a barred list.

Independent Advocate

An individual who is independent of the Agency or of any of the statutory agencies involved in the purchasing and provision of care in, or regulation of, the adult placement, who acts on behalf of and in the interests of someone who feels unable to represent him/herself when dealing with professionals. Self-advocates are trained and supported to represent their own views.
