

Seasonal Exemption – Hospitality Sector

Period covered by the exemption

- 1st March 20&2 – 31st October 20&2

Eligibility Criteria

- Employers must pre-register to use the exemption, indicating how many seasonal positions they are likely to require and to confirm they agree and understand the requirements of the exemption.
- The exemption only covers genuine seasonal vacancies. Existing, continuing or subsequent employment must be covered by the granting of a permit. The exemption cannot be used in respect of employment which is expected to continue after the expiry of the exemption period.
- The exemption only applies to workers with a minimum of 12 months' previous work experience in the Hospitality sector or related employment.
- The exemption only applies to bona fide employees employed under a contract of employment and it does not cover any zero hours contract workers, casual workers or agency workers.
- The exemption is only applicable to workers from the Common Travel Area¹ (CTA) and employers must satisfy themselves that the workers British, Irish, or "settled status" holding nationals.
- The Control of Employment Act 2014 prohibits persons who have an unspent criminal conviction from using any exemption; and responsibility for vetting potential employees and conducting relevant background checks is the sole responsibility of the employer.

Conditions

- Employers must continue to make vacancies genuinely available to Isle of Man workers.
- The employer must notify the Department if any individual employed under the exemption, is charged with a criminal offence.
- Employers must comply with Isle of Man employment law in all respects (including the Minimum Wage Act 2001 and the Annual Leave Regulations 2007). Persons employed under this exemption shall not receive less favourable terms and conditions than any other staff of the employer who are performing similar duties.

Evidence / Record Keeping

- The employer must maintain records of those persons working under the exemption, (including evidence of identity verification, date of birth, national insurance number) and make the same available to the Department upon request.
- The employer must notify the Department if the employment ceases, if the employment concludes by other means, or if there is any other material change to the employment.

¹ The Common Travel Area consists of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, the Republic of Ireland, the Isle of Man, the Bailiwick of Jersey, and the Bailiwick of Guernsey, including Alderney, Sark, and Herm.
