EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations apply to companies incorporated under the Companies Acts 1931 to 2004.

Companies that wish to repurchase issued shares must ordinarily do this under Part 1 of the Companies Act 1992. Any shares that are repurchased using this method must, on repurchase, be cancelled and the issued share capital of the company reduced accordingly.

Under these Regulations, a company may purchase its own shares out of distributable profits, and hold them in treasury, without cancelling them. The company must be entered on the register of members. While shares are held by the company as treasury shares, the normal rights that attach to shares, such as the right to vote and to receive a dividend, are suspended.

These Regulations replace the Companies Act 1931 to 2004 (Treasury Share) Regulations 2010.
