

Your Lump Sum on Death Nomination Form

Under the rules of the Isle of Man Government Unified Scheme 2011 (the Scheme) a lump sum death benefit is payable if you die. You can use this form to nominate the person/s you want to receive any lump sum payable. Depending on your personal circumstances you may wish to make a separate nomination for an unmarried partner to receive a survivor pension in the event of your death – see member guide for more information.

What do I need to do?

1. Complete this form with your personal details and the details of everyone who you want to nominate to be eligible to receive any lump sum benefits payable upon your death.
2. Make sure that if you are nominating more than one person that each percentage share, when added together total 100%.
3. Return your form to the address shown on the back page.

Please note that further information may be required to confirm the eligibility of any nominee.

Who can I nominate?

You can nominate as many people as you like.

You can nominate:

- » any individual (including a child); and
- » an incorporated/unincorporated body (e.g. a bank, partnership or firm of solicitors).

Important notes

1. To qualify for payment of lump sum death benefits you must, at the time of your death, have been a member of the Scheme.
2. You can nominate as many people as you like. Your nominee(s) can be any individual (including a child) or an incorporated/unincorporated body (e.g. a bank, partnership or firm of solicitors) with whom prior arrangements have been made for the distribution of the lump sum death benefit.
3. If you nominate more than one person make sure each individual share when added together equal 100%.
4. Please keep a copy of this form in a safe place and make sure all your nominees are aware of the terms of their nomination.
5. The Scheme will only pay a lump sum in accordance with this nomination and will not be bound by any Will or other expression of wishes.
6. Your nomination is not binding on the Scheme. If, for some reason, the Scheme does not pay benefits to someone you have named, your benefits will be paid to your personal representatives (the people who sort out your financial position after your death).
7. You should consider changing your death benefits nomination if your personal circumstances change
8. An individual nomination will not be valid, if, at the time of your death:
  - a. A nominee was your spouse or civil partner at the time you made your nomination and your marriage/civil partnership has since ended;
  - b. A nominee has died;
  - c. A nominee was convicted of your murder or manslaughter.
9. The Scheme must pay death benefits within two years of your death. If we are unable to track down anyone you have named, or if there is no valid nomination, we will pay any death benefit to your personal representatives
10. If you get divorced, the court may order that all or part of any death benefit is paid to your former spouse/civil partner. If this happens, your nomination will apply to the rest of the death benefits only.
11. This nomination is made for the beneficiaries for the lump sum death benefit only and does not cover a nomination of an unmarried partner to receive any survivor's pension. To nominate an unmarried partner, please also complete an Unmarried Partner Nomination Form.
12. How we use your information: The PSPA will use the information that you have provided on this form for administering your Scheme membership and processing the payment of your pension benefits. We may share your information to administer and pay your pension, enable us to prevent and detect fraud and mistakes, or as required by law. For more information about with whom we share your information and how long we keep your personal data and your rights, please refer to our Privacy Notice on our website at www.pspa.im
