CARDS FOR SENIOR AND DISABLED PASSENGERS

GO SILVER

Go Silver cards have replaced the 60+ cards for eligible resident pensioners. They allow free travel on buses at weekends, and between 9:00 and 16:00 and after 17:30 on weekdays, along with a number of other benefits. The cards are renewed for free every 5 years. Lost cards can be replaced for £10.

GO GOLD

Go Gold cards replace the disability concession passes for eligible residents* under pensionable age and their carer where required. They allow free travel from 09:00 on weekdays, along with a number of other benefits. The cards are renewed free of charge every 5 years. Lost cards can be replaced for £10. Disabled* passengers who are of a pensionable age are not entitled and will need to apply for a Go Silver Card. *not including registered blind.

GO GOLD PLUS

These cards are issued to eligible residents who are registered blind. They are valid for free bus travel all day. Cards will be valid for 3 years before requiring to be renewed. The cost for replacement of lost cards will be £10. These can be issued through the Manx Blind Welfare only.

Travel with Go cards for bus and rail journeys with Isle of Man Transport.

Why Purchase a Go Card?

- Fantastic reduced fares
