

"It's difficult to put into words the benefits of volunteering work at the hospital brings. For me it's like stepping into another world. One filled with immense joy and satisfaction. My job with the book trolley is to bring a ray of sunshine to the patients and the wards. The appreciation and the smiles you receive when they hear the wheels coming is extremely heart warming. I bring that home when I leave."

David Creane - Book Trolley

