

6. On a separate sheet please provide your reasons, if any, for considering the use, operations or other matter described in this application as lawful. And state such other information that you consider relevant to this application. Where lawfulness is or a use, please provide evidence for the whole period of use relevant to this application.

7. Is the applicant the owner of the site?

Yes

No

The Department of Environment, Food & Agriculture (DEFA) is a controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and related legislation and requires the information supplied by this application in the public interest to comply with obligations under the Town and Country Planning Act 1999 and its subordinate Orders and Regulations.

Your personal information will be held by DEFA for the purposes of processing this application and to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Town & Country Planning Act 1999.

All applications made under these obligations are available online with most personal contact detail redacted. Any hard copy, where we hold it, will retain all detail.

Your application will be published via our viewing platforms as is required by statute. It will also be shared with DOI Highways, the Local Authority and (where relevant) Manx National Heritage. Where necessary we will share your contact detail as part of the consultation with the DEFA Environmental Protection Unit and Manx Utilities.

Details under these applications are retained indefinitely in order to maintain the application register as required under the Town and Country Planning Act 1999. Contact detail will be removed 7 years after a decision becomes final.

Full details of how and why DEFA P&BC processes your personal information are contained in our P&BC Privacy Notice available on our website.

If you would like further information on how your personal information is processed and your rights please contact the Department's Data Protection Officer on 686781 or by email at DPO-DEFA@gov.im

I/We the named applicant(s) hereby apply for a certificate of lawfulness, in respect of the matters set out above and in accordance with the information submitted herewith.

To the best of my knowledge and belief, all the information given in this application is true, and the documents provided herewith are accurate

I herewith enclose:

- a plan identifying the land to which the application relates; Note where the application has suggested 2 or more uses, operations or other matters, the plan which accompanies the application shall indicate to which part of the land each such use, operation or matter relates.
- such evidence verifying the information included in this form as I can provide.

Signature of Applicant or Agent

Date

It is requested that three copies of this application form and all supporting statements and plans are forwarded to the address below.

The Department may by notice in writing require the applicant to provide such further information as may be specified to assist in its consideration of the application.

On validation of the application, the Department will issue a Notice to the Local Authority. The Notice will invite written representation as to the content of the application.

Under Section 24(4) of the Town and Country Planning Act 1999, any person who for the purpose of procuring a particular decision on an application for a certificate:

- a) knowingly or recklessly makes a statement which is false or misleading in a material particular;
- b) with intent to deceive, use a document which is false or misleading in a material particular;
- c) with intent to deceive, withholds any material information; is guilty of an offence and may be liable:
 - a) on summary conviction to custody for a term not exceeding 6 months or to a fine not exceeding £10000, or both;
 - b) on convictions on information to custody for a term not exceeding 2 years, or to a fine, or both.

Please note that the Department retains powers under Section 24(5) of the 1999 Act, Section 5 of the Regulations, to revoke a certificate.