PART 2 – STARTING AN APPEAL

6 Starting an appeal

- (1) An appeal is made to the Tribunal by the appellant presenting to the Clerk a notice of appeal in writing (which may, but need not, be in a form prescribed under rule 30) within 28 days of the date on which the original decision was notified by the decision maker to the person to whom it was addressed.

- (2) The notice must include all the following information –
 - (a) the appellant’s name and address;
 - (b) details of the original decision;
 - (c) the grounds of the appeal (including, where appropriate, a brief summary of the facts giving rise to it);
 - (d) the name and address of the decision maker; and
 - (e) the name and address (so far as known to the appellant) of any person appearing to the appellant to have a direct interest in the outcome of the appeal.
- (3) The notice must be accompanied by a copy of the document by which the original decision was notified as referred to in paragraph (1).

7 Initial action on receipt of notice of appeal

- (1) On receiving a notice of appeal (including a notice of appeal which is re-presented after being returned to the appellant under paragraph (2)), the Clerk must consider what action to take under this rule.
- (2) If the notice of appeal –
 - (a) does not comply with rule 6(2) or (3); or
 - (b) is made after the expiry of the time referred to in rule 6(1), and does not include an application to the Tribunal to extend the time for bringing the appeal (with an explanation why the appellant could not comply with the time limit), the Clerk must, not later than 10 days after receipt, return it to the appellant, indicating what information or other matters should be included in it or accompany it, and the appeal is to be treated as if it had not been made.

- (3) If the appeal includes an application and explanation as mentioned in paragraph (2)(b), the Clerk must, not later than 10 days after receipt, refer the appeal to the Chairperson.
- (4) If it appears to the Clerk that for any reason (other than the expiry of the time-limit referred to in rule 6(1)) the Tribunal does not have power to consider the appeal, he must, not later than 10 days after receipt, either –
 - (a) notify the appellant of that opinion, stating his or her reasons for that opinion and informing the appellant that the appeal will be treated as if it had not been made unless the appellant states in writing, not later than 21 days after the date of the notification, that the appellant wishes to proceed with it; or

- (b) refer the appeal to the Chairperson.
- (5) If, pursuant to a notification under paragraph (4)(a), the appellant states within the time allowed that the appellant wishes to proceed with the appeal, the Clerk must forthwith refer the appeal to the Chairperson; but if the appellant fails to do so, it must be treated as if it had not been made.
- (6) On a reference under paragraph (3), (4)(b) or (5) the Chairperson must either –
 - (a) decide without a hearing whether –
 - (i) the appeal should be accepted out of time; or
 - (ii) the Tribunal has power to consider the appeal, as the case may be, or
 - (b) order that such a decision is to be made at a preliminary hearing; and inform the Clerk in writing of his or her decision or order.
- (7) Paragraph (8) applies if –
 - (a) paragraphs (2) to (5) do not apply;
 - (b) the Chairperson decides under paragraph (6) that the appeal should be accepted out of time, or that the Tribunal has power to consider it; or
 - (c) the Chairperson orders that such a decision must be made at a preliminary hearing.
- (8) If this paragraph applies, the Clerk must –
 - (a) send a copy of the notice of appeal to each respondent (with a copy of any order under paragraph (7)(c)), and record in writing the date on which it was sent;
 - (b) inform the parties in writing of the case number of the appeal (which must from then on be referred to in all correspondence relating to the appeal) and the address to which notices and other communications to the Clerk must be sent; and
 - (c) inform the respondent in writing –
 - (i) about how to enter a reply to the appeal, the time limit for doing so, what may happen if a reply is not entered within the time limit; and
 - (ii) that the respondent has a right to receive a copy of any decision disposing of the appeal.
- (9) If the Chairperson decides under paragraph (6) that the appeal is not accepted out of time, or that the Tribunal has no power to consider it –
 - (a) the Clerk must as soon as reasonably practicable inform the appellant of that decision and the reasons for it in writing,

- together with information on how an appeal may be brought against that decision; and
- (b) except for the purposes of any appeal to the High Court, the appeal is to be treated as if it had not been presented.
- (10) A decision to accept an appeal does not bind the Chairperson or Tribunal where any of the issues specified in paragraph (2)(a) or (b) or (4) falls to be decided later in the proceedings.

8 Replying to the appeal

- (1) If the respondent wishes to reply to the appeal he or she must present his or her reply to the Clerk in writing (which may, but need not, be in a form prescribed under rule 30) –
- (a) within 14 days of the date on which the respondent was sent a copy of the notice of appeal, or
 - (b) within such further period as the Chairperson considers reasonable, where on an application by the respondent the Chairperson is satisfied –
 - (i) that it was not reasonably practicable for the reply to be presented within 14 days of that date, or
 - (ii) that for any other reason it is just and equitable to extend the time.
- (2) An application under paragraph (1)(b) may be made before or at the same time as a reply is presented, and must explain why the respondent cannot or could not comply with the time limit.
- (3) The reply must include all the following information –
- (a) the respondent's name;
 - (b) the respondent's address;
 - (c) whether or not the respondent wishes to resist the appeal in whole or in part; and
 - (d) if the respondent wishes to do so, on what grounds.
- (4) The grounds referred to paragraph (3)(d) must include –
- (a) the facts outlining the case leading up to the appeal;
 - (b) the issues which the respondent has identified as being relevant to the appeal;
 - (c) details of all matters relevant to the issues which have been identified;
 - (d) the applicable law; and
 - (e) an indication of how the relevant facts and applicable law have been applied in order to decide the issues.

9 Action on receipt of reply

- (1) On receiving a reply (including a reply which is re-presented after being returned to the respondent under paragraph (2)), the Clerk must consider what action to take under this rule.
- (2) If the reply –
 - (a) does not include all the information required by rule 8(3) and 8(4); or
 - (b) is made after the time specified in rule 8(1)(a), or that time as extended under rule 8(1)(b), and no application is or has been duly made to extend the time for presenting the reply,the Clerk must, not later than 10 days after receipt, return it to the respondent, indicating (where appropriate) what information or other matters should be included in it or accompany it, and the reply must be treated as if it had not been presented.
- (3) If an application is made under rule 8(1)(b), the Clerk must, not later than 10 days after receipt, refer it to the Chairperson.
- (4) On a reference under paragraph (3) the Chairperson must either –
 - (a) decide whether the reply should be accepted out of time without a hearing; or
 - (b) order that such a decision must be made at a preliminary hearing; and inform the Clerk of his or her decision or order in writing.
- (5) The Clerk must –
 - (a) inform both the appellant and the respondent of a decision under paragraph (4)(a) that the reply should not be accepted out of time and the reasons for it; and
 - (b) inform the respondent of the consequences of that decision and how it may be appealed.
- (6) If –
 - (a) paragraphs (2) and (3) do not apply;
 - (b) the Chairperson decides under paragraph (4)(a) that a reply should be accepted out of time; or
 - (c) the Chairperson orders that such a decision is to be made at a preliminary hearing;

the Clerk must send a copy of the reply to all other parties (with a copy of any order under paragraph (4)(b)) and record in writing the date on which it is sent.

10 Taking no further part in the proceedings

A respondent who has not presented a reply to an appeal within the time specified in rule 8(1)(a), or that time as extended under rule 8(1)(b), is not entitled to take any part in the proceedings except –

- (a) to be called as a witness by another person; or
- (b) to be sent a copy of a decision, order or corrected entry in accordance with rule 21(3) or (4) or 25;

and (subject to rule 26(5)) in these Rules the word "party" or "respondent" includes a respondent only in relation to his or her entitlement to take such a part in the proceedings, and in relation to any such part which he or she takes.
