Guidance

Section 3 of the Elections (Keys and Local Authorities) Act 2020 provides for the interpretation of “relevant interest”, subject to the power of the Council of Ministers to amend this definition by order requiring Tynwald approval, means any interest (existing at any time from 12 months before the election for which a prospective candidate proposes to stand, or present interest) which may affect, or reasonably be perceived as affecting, a prospective candidate’s judgement on the way in which the prospective candidate may carry out his or her duties if elected, and included in particular—

- (a) a legal or equitable interest in any of the following—
 - (i) land or building, except the prospective candidate’s principle private residence;
 - (ii) shares or stock held in any company whose shares or stock are publicly quoted on a stock exchange in the United Kingdom or Ireland;
 - (iii) shares or stock held in any company other than one within paragraph (b);
 - (iv) a legal right, including a deposit or loan of money or money’s worth, or more than £50,000 in value; except where—
 - (A) the reason for which the right in question has come in to existence is of an immediate family member or personal nature (including inheritance);
 - (B) It has not been created with a view to profit; and
 - (C) Any interest earned is at a normal commercial rates;
 - (b) a directorship, consultancy, proprietorial or managerial role whether paid or not in, or in relation to, any business or professional undertaking;
 - (c) sponsorship in money or money’s worth from a trade union, professional society, political group or party, registered charity, person or persons other than the prospective candidate’s immediate family, or from a cultural or religious source, or a consultancy with any of the foregoing, whether paid or not;
 - (d) gifts and benefits in kind from private sources of any amount which might be taken to affect the way in which a prospective candidate, if elected, may vote or otherwise carry out their public duties, but excluding—
 - (i) all inheritances;
 - (ii) gifts or benefits received from the prospective candidate’s immediate family; and
 - (iii) attendance at functions in the course of governmental or official parliamentary sponsored duties;
 - (e) the authorship of a book, pamphlet or the like, or of an article or column in a newspaper or journal or on the internet, which does not appear under the prospective candidate’s name;
 - (f) membership of any trade union, professional society, political grouping or party, or of the Freemasons or any body outside Tynwald.
