Legislative provision

Section 4 of the Elections (Keys and Local Authorities) Act 2020 provides for qualifications for membership of the Keys:

(1) A person may stand as a candidate for, and be elected a member of, the Keys for a constituency if at the time of nomination as a candidate the person —

- (a) has attained the age of 18 years;
- (b) is either a British citizen or has the right to remain in the Island;
- (c) is ordinarily resident in the Island and has been so resident for a period of, or for periods amounting in the aggregate to, five years or more; and
- (d) is registered on the register of electors for any electoral area in the Island, provided that the person is not disqualified under section 5.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a person has the right to remain in the Island if the person —

- (a) has indefinite leave to remain in the Island, within the meaning of the Immigration Act 1971 (of Parliament), as it has effect in the Island (the "1971 Act"); or
- (b) does not under the 1971 Act require leave to enter or remain in the Island, by virtue of section 7(1) of the Immigration Act 1988 (of Parliament), as it has effect in the Island, and, in either case, the person is not liable to deportation under section 3(5) or (6) of the 1971 Act.

Section 5 provides for disqualification for membership of the Keys:

(1) A person is disqualified for being a candidate for election for the Keys if at the time the person is nominated as a candidate the person —

- (a) is the holder of an office of profit under the government of any country or territory outside the Island;
- (b) has been convicted of a relevant offence, unless the conviction is spent for the purposes of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 2001;
- (c) is incapable of being elected to and sitting in the Keys by virtue of section 126 (incapacities on report or conviction of corrupt or illegal practice);
- (d) is serving a custodial sentence following conviction for any offence;
- (e) is an undischarged bankrupt;
- (f) is subject to any incapacity by virtue of this or any other Act; or
- (g) has within five years before the day of the election or since his or her election, been convicted of an offence —
  - (i) in the Island or, if it would have been an offence had it been committed in the Island, in any other jurisdiction; and
  - (ii) for which he or she has been sentenced to custody (whether suspended or not) for a period of not less than three months without the option of a fine.

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1)(b), a "relevant offence" is an offence (wherever committed) involving corruption, bribery or dishonesty or an offence (of any kind) under this Act or under the legislation of another country or territory equivalent to this Act.

Privacy Notice

The Cabinet Office collects and processes personal information to fulfil its legal and statutory functions. We only use, gather and share personal information where we have an appropriate legal basis to do so under the Annex to the Data Protection (Application of the GDPR) Order 2018 (SD 2018/0143) ("Applied GDPR").

The legal basis for the processing of your data will be Article 6(1)(c) or Article 6(1)(e) of the Applied GDPR – namely that processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject or that the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller and where the official functions are underpinned by common law or statute.

Electoral Candidacy

The Cabinet Office will use information from candidates standing for election to fulfil statutory responsibilities under the Elections (Keys and Local Authorities) Act 2020 and Elections (Keys) Regulations 2021.

The Cabinet Office has appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO) to help ensure that we fulfil our legal obligations when processing personal information.
