MADE 29 JUNE 2021

HOWARD QUAYLE
Minister for the Cabinet Office

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the Immigration (Control of Entry through Republic of Ireland) Order 2016 (S.D. 2016/0049) (“the 2016 Order”) in respect of persons who require leave to enter or remain in the Isle of Man, have left the Isle of Man in circumstances where they did not have such leave and who have not subsequently been granted admission to, or leave to enter or remain in, the Isle of Man, or the United Kingdom or Channel Islands.

Article 2 of this instrument amends article 4 of the 2016 Order so that, in respect of travel to the Isle of Man from the Republic of Ireland, such individuals are not entitled to benefit from the common travel area principles set out in section 1(3) of the Immigration Act 1971.
