

Department of Environment, Food & Agriculture

Rheynn Chymmyltaght, Bee as Eirinys

Table with 1 column and 4 rows: For Official use, Issued by:, Date:, Permit No:, Payment ref:

Application for a Sulby Claddagh Camping Permit - Season 2022

Form fields: Surname, Title, Full Forenames, Applicant's Home Address, Postcode, Telephone, Mobile, Email address, Would you like to receive information on other Isle of Man Events and Activities?, Permit applied for, Vehicle Registration Number, Expected Number of Occupants, Did you obtain a Full Season Permit in 2021?

Payment

- A payment of £16 should accompany each application form.
• Cheques should be made payable to Isle of Man Government.
• Payment by credit/debit card or cash can be made in person at the Department's offices, 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.
• Card payments can also be made by telephoning the Department on 695701.

I have read and agree to comply with the Sulby Claddagh Byelaws (summary above) and any associated site rules. I understand that the Department may revoke this permit if I, or any of the occupants associated with this camping unit, are in breach of the Byelaws or site rules.

Personal Information

The Department of Environment, Food & Agriculture is a controller for the purposes of the 2018 Data Protection legislation and requires the information on this form in the public interest with that having its basis in the Forestry Act 1984. Your personal information will be held by DEFA for the purposes of processing this application and will be destroyed once the associated permit is no longer valid.

- You may request erasure, restriction or amendment of your details at any time if you no longer wish us to process your application. You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner if you think the Department is acting outside of the Data Protection Act 2002. The IC can be contacted here https://www.inforights.im/
• The DEFA Data Protection Officer can be contacted on 686781 or by email at DPO-DEFA@gov.im

Signature Date

Sulby Claddagh Overnight Camping Permits - Frequently Asked Questions

- 1. Q. Why is there a need for a camping permit system at Sulby Claddagh?
A. So we know who may be on site to enable better control of overnight camping.
2. Q. Is there a charge for a Sulby Claddagh camping permit?

Department of Environment, Food & Agriculture, Thie Slieau Whallian, Foxdale Road, St. John's, Isle of Man, IM4 3AS. Telephone: (01624) 695701 Email: forestry@gov.im or visit: www.gov.im/camping

A. Yes, a £16 administration fee applies to each permit.

3. Q. When can I apply for a camping permit?

A. Camping permits in 2022 will be available mid March. You should apply for a permit in advance of your visit, as permits are not issued on site.

4. Q. Where can I obtain a camping permit?

A. From the Department of Environment, Food and Agriculture Offices at Thie Slieau Whallian, Foxdale Road, St. John's, IM4 3AS. Opening hours 9.00am to 5.00pm Monday to Friday.

5. Q. I had a permit in 2021, do I need to re-submit my documents?

You will need to complete a 2022 application form, as a new permit and permit number will need to be issued and used when booking a pitch.

6. Q. Can I make an online or postal application for a Sulby Claddagh camping permit?

A. Yes, online applications can be made at www.gov.im/camping. We can also send you an application form either by post or email. This should then be completed and returned to the Department.

7. Q. How long does a permit last?

A. It covers a whole season i.e. Easter weekend and 1st May to 30th September in any one year. (Camping on the Claddagh is not permitted outside this period).

8. Q. Do age restrictions apply to applicants for permits?

A. Yes. A permit may only be obtained by a responsible adult, 18 years or over.

9. Q. What does a seasonal camping permit allow?

A. The permit allows the holder to pitch a camping unit (tent, campervan, caravan, trailer tent, etc) staying for up to a maximum of 14 nights at a time, as stated in the Sulby Claddagh Byelaws.

10. Q. Does having a camping permit reserve a pitch at Sulby Claddagh?

A. No. Pitches are available on a first-come-first-served basis. Refer to www.gov.im/camping for how to book a pitch.

11. Q. Does each person need a permit?

A. No – the permit covers the camping unit.

12. Q. I have a large family; can a permit apply to more than one tent?

A. A permit will also cover 'pup' tents associated with a family from the same household.

13. Q. Can I give my permit to a friend to use?

A. No. The camping permit is non-transferable.

14. Q. Do I need to have my permit with me when camping on the Claddagh?

A. Yes. Your permit must be clearly displayed at all times when camping overnight on the Claddagh.

15. Q. Does the camping permit system apply to visitors to the Island?

A. Yes. Camping permits are required by all visitors camping overnight at the Claddagh.

16. Q. Does the permit system replace the Sulby Claddagh Byelaws?

A. No. All Sulby Claddagh Byelaws still apply (see summary overleaf).

17. Q. Do I need a camping permit to enjoy daytime recreation on the Claddagh?

A. No, permits are only needed for overnight camping.

18. Q. Who is responsible for checking the permits?

A. Any responsible official nominated by the Department, including staff and officers of the Forestry, Amenity & Lands Directorate, contracted security guards, police officers, etc.

SULBY CLADDAGH – Summary of Byelaws and site rules

(This summary is for guidance only and does not constitute an authoritative statement of law)

- No overnight parking or camping permitted during "Winter" - 1st October to 30th April (except for Easter Weekend).
- Camping with tent, trailer tent, caravan or camper van etc. permitted only during "Summer" – 1st May to 30th September. Maximum stay is 14 days, after which tent etc. must be removed from the site for at least 4 days.
- Permit required for all overnight camping (12 midnight to 6am). Permit to be clearly displayed at all times.
- No fires permitted. Barbecues* etc. must be raised off the ground sufficient to protect it from damage. *Charcoal or gas/paraffin only - no other fuel permitted.
- No vehicles on Claddagh other than for access i.e. no riding or driving around.
- No camping on the riverside and recreation areas (except during T.T. and Grand Prix fortnights).
- No loud music at any time.
- No music or generators after 10.30pm or before 7.30am.
- No violent, quarrelsome or disorderly behaviour.
- No profane, obscene or threatening language.
- No fouling, dogs must be kept under control.
- All litter to be taken away or disposed of in the bins provided.
- No caravans or vehicles to be displayed for sale.
- Tents, caravans etc. must be at least 6 metres apart.
- No camping units to be left unoccupied overnight.

Penalty – a fine not exceeding £2,500