their own commissioners, as such Michael Parish Commissioners was established. However, in 1904 Michael Parish Commissioners received complaints from the Local Government Board about the water supply to Michael Village. This led to pressure to have the village declared a special district for the purposes of “water supply and drainage under the Local Government Act 1904.” In a public meeting held at the Court House on 18 Jan 1905 it was unanimously agreed that the village should be formed into a separate village district and as such, five village commissioners were elected on 8 Nov 1905. Despite the separation between Michael Parish and Michael Village Commissioners, in certain areas they did work collaboratively. They operated on joint committees including the Kirk Michael Guardians of the Poor, the Court House Management Committee and the Royal Arrangements Committee. They were also involved in the organisation of various events and celebrations in Kirk Michael. The Michael Village and Michael Parish Commissioners remained in place up until the 1st April 1989 when they decided to amalgamate and form Michael District Commissioners, who remain in operation to this day.

Custodial History: The records comprising this series were fully transferred to the IOMPRO under section 3(4) of the Public Records Act 1999 on 11 October 2018 on the authority of the Clerk of Michael District Commissioners and members of the Board of Commissioners. Prior to transfer to the Public Record Office they were held at the Michael Commissioners Office, Commissioners Office, Main Road, Kirk Michael, Isle of Man, IM6 1ER.

The records of Michael Village and Michael Parish Commissioners were held at their respective offices prior to amalgamation in 1989.

Appraisal: Selected for permanent preservation and accessioned by Eleanor Williams, Records & Archive Officer, under section 3(4) of the Public Records Act 1999.
