Data Protection

The Department of Environment, Food & Agriculture is a data controller for the purposes of the Data Protection Act 2018 and requires the information on this form to comply with its legal obligations under the Wildlife Act 1990, The Wild Animals Act 1980 and the Destructive Imported Animals Act 1963. The requirement to report is a condition of the licences that are current from 1st January 2023 to 31st December 2024. The information gathered will assist the Department to quantify the use of the General Licences, how this relates to policy objectives and their ongoing need and help the Department to better justify its continued provision of such licences. The information will be retained until 31st December 2025 and personal data will be deleted at the end of this period.

Some of the information you provide, may be shared within the Department if it will help fulfil other statutory obligations or other functions carried out in the public interest.

You may request erasure, restriction or amendment of your details at any time if you no longer wish us to process your application. Full details of how and why DEFA processes your personal information are contained in our privacy policy; <https://www.gov.im/ecosystemprivacynotice>

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Information Commissioner if you think the Department is acting outside of the Data Protection Act 2018. The IC can be contacted here <https://www.inforights.im/>
The Data Protection Officer can be contacted on 686781 or by email at DPO-DEFA@gov.im
