Administrative History:

Vehicle registration on the Isle of Man began in January 1906 as a result of the passing by Tynwald of the Highways Act Amendment Act, 1905. The Act introduced compulsory registration of motor cars and motor cycles on the Island and every motor vehicle was provided with a separate license plate number.

The below provides a brief guide to the index mark numbering system used for vehicles from Jan 1906-Aug 1987:

Date	License Plate Numbers	Notes
Jan 1906-Mar 1935	MN 1 - MN 9999
Mar 1935- Apr 1936	MAN 1 - MAN 999
Apr 1936-May 1959	BMN 1 - YMN 999	excluding A, I, Q, S, Z
May 1959-Oct 1964	1 MN - 9999 MN

Nov 1971-May 1974	MN 1 - MN 9999	unissued numbers of 1906-1935

Jul 1985-Aug 1987	1000 MAN - 9999 MAN

Vehicle registration has been the responsibility of various boards and departments including the Isle of Man Highways Board and the Isle of Man Highways and Transport Board. Records of vehicle registration continue to be maintained by the Isle of Man Government in computerised form; the sequence of vehicle registration cards was discontinued during the 1980s after the introduction of a computerised database.

Vehicle registration is currently (Aug 2023) the responsibility of the Vehicle and Driver Licensing Office at the Department of Infrastructure, Highway and Services Division.

Custodial History:

Records from A52 were stored at the Sea Terminal Vehicle Licensing Office from 2005-2015. During 2015, they were briefly stored by IMS (Isle of Man Post Office). In December 2015, they were transferred by the Department of Infrastructure to the Isle of Man Public Record Office under section 3(4) of the Public Records Act 1999. Prior to 2005 it is likely that the cards were stored at the Central Government Offices in Bucks Road, Douglas, although this has not been confirmed.

The records of A202 were received by the Manx Museum and National Trust in 1980. In February 2015 Manx National Heritage and the Public Record Office were approached by the Vehicle and Driver Licensing Section of the Department of Infrastructure to take in more vehicle registration records. These records were selected for permanent preservation by the

Isle of Man Public Record Office

Public Record Office. Permission was given by Manx National Heritage Trustees on 5 September 2019 for the Manx National Heritage-held records to be transferred to the Public Record Office in order to rationalise vehicle registration holdings in one archival repository. Records were held at Manx National Heritage Library and Archives prior to transfer to the Public Record Office in February 2021.

Appraisal:

A52 was selected for permanent preservation during a visit to the Highways Licensing division (Sea Terminal, Douglas) on 24 February 2015 (Angela Skitt, IOMPRO).

A202 was selected for permanent preservation by Manx National Heritage in 1980 and then subsequently transferred to the Public Record Office to rationalise vehicle registration holdings in one archival repository.

S29/3 SubSeries	Isle of Man vehicle registration cards	Vehicle registration cards for Isle of Man registered vehicles are arranged in 770 bundles by registration number. The cards typically include the vehicle registration number, chassis number, colour, engine number, make, model, owner, date registered and addresses of the owner. For a small number of registrations, other documentation (such as tax discs, applications and correspondence relating to the vehicle) may be found at the back of the bundle. The cards do not form a complete series and some registrations are not present. The original order of the cards (as received when the cards were transferred to the Isle of Man Public Record Office) has been retained; as a result, the cards may not be in strict registration number order within each bundle. Vehicle registration numbers were frequently re-issued following cancellation of a registration and as a result, registration number sequences can be found repeating throughout the series. The use of vehicle registration cards was discontinued in the early 1980s after the introduction of a computerised database system.	770 bundles	[1920-1980]	Open
