

PUBLIC STATEMENT

'MILLIONAIRE HOUSE CLUB'

On 2 February 2024 the Isle of Man Gambling Supervision Commission (the "Commission") issued a public statement regarding 'Millionaire House Club' advising that the Commission was investigating prima facie contraventions of Isle of Man gambling legislation by 'Millionaire House Club'.

The Commission wishes to advise that it has now concluded its investigation and, having considered all of the circumstances, has determined the investigation should cease and that no further action is necessary to be taken at this time.

The Commission wishes to thank those members of the public that first alerted it to the activities of 'Millionaire House Club' and anyone who thereafter contacted it regarding its public statement.

The Commission urges any person wishing to establish any form of gambling product in, on or from the Isle of Man to contact the Commission and to seek legal advice in advance of commencing the activity or circulating any promotional or other associated materials (in whatever format).

A list of gambling operators licensed by the Commission can be found on our website.

Any members of the general public who receive leaflets or similar which promote, or appear to promote, any gambling activity are encouraged to check the list of licensed gambling operators and/or contact the Commission.

Enquiries: any enquiries in relation to this public statement should be directed by e-mail to gscenforcement@gov.im.
