PSPA11 Unmarried Partner Nomination Revocation Form

Under the rules of each Public Sector Pension Scheme, a survivor's pension will be paid to your spouse, civil partner or nominated unmarried partner when you die. If you have a spouse or registered civil partner, you cannot make a revocation as they are automatically entitled by your Schemes survivor's benefits.

What Do I Need to Do?

If you had nominated your partner as your surviving adult dependent partner to receive a survivor's pension when you die and you want to revoke that nomination then please:

1. Complete this form in its entirety.
2. Ensure that a witness has signed the declaration in section 4.
3. Inform the person named below their unmarried partner nomination has been revoked.
4. Return your form to the address shown below. We will send a copy of the form back to you for your records.

Please complete in black ink using BLOCK CAPITALS.
