National Insurance Contributions From April 2011

From the 6th April 2011 the rates of employees and employers National Insurance Contribution (NIC) payable will remain unchanged in the Isle of Man (IOM) however the thresholds have been increased, see page 7 for more details.

The United Kingdom (UK) have increased the rates of NICs payable by 1% and the thresholds have also changed it is therefore important that you look at the circumstances shown below so you can decide which rates and thresholds are applicable. Where you are required to use the UK rates and thresholds UEL you should use the UK tables, available online at www.hmrc.gov.uk/nic/nitables.htm, to calculate the amount of NICs due.

Employers with employees in these circumstances should contact the Income Tax Division's NIC section on (01624) 685177 for information on how to submit their earnings details to us at the end of the tax year.

Use United Kingdom Tables

UK Employment Arrangements

Where an IOM resident employer employs UK resident employees to work in the UK, the employer should use the UK tables.

Temporary Workers

Where a UK resident employer sends UK resident employees, who normally work for that employer in the UK, to work temporarily in the IOM, the employer should use the UK tables.

Employment Abroad

Where an IOM resident employer sends UK resident employees, who normally work for that employer in the UK, to work abroad the employer should use the UK tables.

State Pension Age Table for Women born between 6th October 1950 and 5th October 1951

Due to changes in Social Security legislation, which came into effect from 6th April 2010 women will remain liable to pay National Insurance contributions after their 60th birthday until they reach their revised State Pension Age.

To check the date on which a female employee will reach State Pension Age, find their date of birth in the first column and check the second column to find the date at which they will reach State Pension Age. For example, if the employee's date of birth is 20/05/1951, they will reach State Pension Age on 06/07/2012.

Payments made to the employee on or after the date that they reach State Pension Age should have table letter "C" applied to them. The National Insurance tables for letter "C" are available in leaflet CF393(IOM) on the Income Tax Division's website at <http://www.gov.im/treasury/incometax/nic.xml>

Electronic submission of an employer's return

Electronic submission of your employer's return is our preference because it allows us to evaluate your submission instantly and provide you with feedback within a day or two: ultimately the time it takes for your employees to get their tax and national insurance affairs settled is reduced.

The Division also has the option for employers to use Online Tax Services which enables them to transact with the Income Tax Division via a secure and easy to use service. This service enables them to do the following:

- Submit the annual return form online, including the submission of the software generated payroll file as an attachment to the online return. It also enables the employer to submit online T14 and T9 forms
- Submit the monthly remittance card (including 'nil payments') and make online payment of ITIP and National Insurance via debit and credit card or BACS transfer.
- View a list of current and previous employees
- Submit employee commencing and leaving (T20/T21) forms online
- View the current code for each employee
- View a list of employees' codes (form T6)

This service provides real time updates, reduces issue and submission of paper documents and provides access to accurate real-time data for enquiry purposes. Online Tax Services are also available for individuals, companies and contractors.

To access Online Tax Services you first need to register for Isle of Man Government Online Services – login to www.gov.im/onlineservices and follow the instructions. For more information regarding these services visit our website at www.gov.im/treasury/incometax/services/onlinetaxservices.xml

Substitute T14s

If you provide substitute T14 forms then you must have the form approved. For further details on the approval of substitute T14 forms please contact the Income Tax Division on (01624) 685425

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 This specification sets out the calculation format for National Insurance Contributions (NICs) for 2011/2012.

1.2 The method of calculation preferred by the Division is the Exact Percentage Method.

1.3 Please note that the manual NIC Tables are designed for the convenience of the manual user, incorporating various roundings which make for possible differences to the calculations undertaken by computerised NIC routines. Software packages which use a mixture of NIC Tables and the Exact Percentage Method must not allow National Insurance to be deducted, for an employee, by both methods within one tax year by the same payroll.

1.4 This specification gives instructions for weekly/monthly paid or multiples of weeks or months i.e., 3, 4, 5 weeks etc.

1.5 If you require further help or assistance please contact the Division's NIC Section on (01624) 685177, we would be pleased to offer further help and assistance.

3. ACCOUNTING FOR NIC REBATES

Employees and employers in contracted-out employment are entitled to a reduction in their NICs on earnings between the LEL to the UEL. NICs are paid on earnings above the ET. The term 'NICs rebate' is used to describe the reduction in NICs on the earnings between the LEL and ET on which no NICs are due.

NIC rebates are only appropriate for contracted-out contributions:

- Employers are entitled to NIC rebates for contribution table letters D, E, L, F, G, S and mariners' equivalents.
- Employees are only entitled to NIC rebates for contribution table letters D, F, L & S and mariners' equivalents.

Employees in contracted-out employment pay NICs at 9.4% on earnings between the ET and the UEL. They are also entitled to a NIC rebate of 1.6% on earnings between the LEL and ET.

Employee's NIC Rebate

The employee's NIC rebate is calculated on earnings between the LEL and the ET. The employee is entitled to that portion of his rebate that can be offset against his NICs. The employer is entitled to any balance of the employee's NIC rebate that cannot be offset against the employee's NICs.

Employer's NIC Rebate

The employer's NIC rebate is also calculated on earnings between the LEL and the ET. The employer is entitled to his own rebate plus any balance of employee's NIC rebate not offset.

Example

An employee earning £116 per week (Contribution Table letter D)

Employee's NICs = £116 x 9.4% = £10.90

Employer's NICs = £116 x 9.1% = £10.56

Employee's NIC rebate = £116 - £102 = £14 x 1.6% = £0.22

Employer's NIC rebate = £116 - £102 = £14 x 3.7% = £0.52

The employee is entitled to £0.22 of their NIC rebate which reduces their NIC liability to nil.

The employer is entitled to the balance of £0.52, PLUS their own NIC rebate of £0.52 = £1.04.

£0.60 employer rebate offset against £0.09 employer NICs = -£0.51 Employer NICs.

Negative figures should be denoted by an 'R' immediately before the entry in column 1d of the form T11.

Form T11

	1a	1b	1c	1d	1e
£116	102	13	1	R 0.51	0.00

4. COMPLETING FORM T11 FOR 2011/12

- 3.1 The format for the deductions working sheet - form T11 - is reflected in the following paragraphs.
- 3.2 Earnings - Columns 1a to 1c should contain whole pounds only if NICs are calculated using the tables method. If NICs are calculated using the exact percentage method, column 1a should contain whole pounds only, and column 1b to 1c should contain pounds and pence.
- 3.3 All references to LEL, ET and UEL in this section are the rates appropriate to the earnings period, i.e. weekly, monthly or multiples thereof.
- 1a Populate with LEL as soon as earnings reach or exceed LEL. Even when no NICs are due.
- 1b Earnings above the LEL up to and including the ET.
- 1c Earnings above ET up to and including UEL.

Please note there is no need to record earnings above the UEL.

- 3.4 Contributions - Columns 1d and 1e should contain pounds and pence
- 1d All earnings above ET multiplied by the appropriate employer's percentage rates
- PLUS
- all earnings above ET up to and including UEL multiplied by the appropriate employee's percentage rate.
- PLUS
- all earnings above the UEL multiplied by the employee's additional 1% rate
- MINUS
- any NIC rebates due on earnings between the LEL to ET (see section 8)
- 1e All earnings above ET up to and including UEL multiplied by the employee's percentage rate.
- PLUS

All earnings above the UEL multiplied by the employee's additional 1% rate

MINUS

any NIC rebate due to the employee on earnings between the LEL to ET (see section 9)

5. Deferred contracted-out NICs

5.1 All employees who defer are required to pay NICs in the deferred employment, at 1% on all earnings above the ET, including any earnings above the UEL. Employees in contracted-out employment will be required to pay NICs at the rate of 2.6% on earnings between the ET and the UEL but this will be reduced by the available contracted-out rebate of 1.6% on all earnings between the LEL and the UEL.

NIC Due LEL \leftarrow 0% \rightarrow ET \leftarrow 2.6% \rightarrow UEL \leftarrow 1% \rightarrow ∞
 NIC rebate LEL \leftarrow 1.6% \rightarrow ET \leftarrow 1.6% \rightarrow UEL \leftarrow 0% \rightarrow ∞

5.2 The contracted-out rebate is used to

- reduce the not contracted-out % rate from 11% to 9.4% on earnings between the ET and UEL, and
- reduce employee's NICs due in 1 above by a further 1.6% of earnings between the LEL and the ET. The employee's NICs can be reduced to zero with any balance being transferred to the employer.

5.3 The effect of the 1.6% contracted-out rebate in deferred employment is to reduce the employees NIC liability on earnings between the ET and the UEL to 1%, any remaining balance of the 1.6% on earnings between the LEL and the ET, that cannot be set against the employees NICs, can be transferred to the employer. NI is then due as follows

Table letter L (COSR)

EE NIC due	LEL-ET	0%
	ET-UEL	1%
	UEL- ∞	1%
EE NIC rebate	LEL-ET	1.6% (any remaining balance not used against EE's NICs to be transferred to ER)
ER NIC due	LEL-ET	0%
	ET-UEL	9.1%
	UEL- ∞	12.8%
ER NIC rebate	LEL-ET	3.7% + any balance of the 1.6% from the EE

Table letter S (COMP)

EE NIC due	LEL-ET	0%
	ET-UEL	1%
	UEL- ∞	1%
EE NIC rebate	LEL-ET	1.6% (any remaining balance not used against EE's NICs to be transferred to ER)
ER NIC due	LEL-ET	0%
	ET-UEL	11.4%
	UEL - ∞	12.8%
ER NIC rebate	LEL-ET	1.4% + any balance of the 1.6% from the EE

6. DESCRIPTION OF THE DIFFERENCES BETWEEN CALCULATING NICs USING THE TABLES AND THE EXACT PERCENTAGE METHOD

The figures shown in the manual NIC tables may differ from the exact percentage method figures. This is because with the exception of the LEL, ET and UEL, the figures in the tables are calculated on the mid point between the earnings bands shown. Therefore the table figures will only match the exact percentage figures when the mid point is the same as the earnings used in the exact percentage calculation, or where the earnings match exactly the LEL, ET . Further information is provided at section 13.

7. RULES FOR ROUNDING

General NI contributions

- 7.1 The Social Security (Contributions) Regulations 2001 (as applied to the Island) provide specific rules for rounding in the calculation of National Insurance contributions.

Regulation 12(1)(b) provides that:

“primary and secondary Class 1 contributions shall be calculated to the nearest penny and any amount of a half penny or less shall be disregarded”.

- 7.2 As the law requires that £0.005 or less is disregarded, we only look at the third decimal place in calculating NICs due where such calculation results in more than two decimal places.

If it is 5 or less round down.

If it is 6 or more round up.

For example, if the NIC calculated was to result in:

£67.5558 the NIC payable would be £67.55, but if the NIC payable came to £67.5568 the NIC payable would be £67.56.

- 7.3 Where rounding is required within the body of the calculation this has been indicated in the formulae with the symbol (R).

8. VALIDATION CHECKS

8.1 The following validation checks should be built into the routines. This will ensure that the information, if required, will be correct and help to eliminate errors.

8.2 Appropriate cross referencing within these fields will let the user know an error has been made. This could be when a field is completed with information that is incompatible with another field, or requires the completion of another field, e.g. contracted-out contributions but no ECON or SCON entered.

10. Worked examples using the NIC calculation formulae

Example 1

An employee earns £104.53 a week and pays standard not contracted-out NICs

Category A NICs

Step 1 Earnings up to and including LEL

$$\left(\text{£}104.53 - \left(\frac{\text{£}5,304 \times 1}{52} \right)^* \right) = \text{£}2.53 \quad (\text{enter weekly LEL (£102) in column 1a})$$

If answer is negative no NICs due and no recording required. Stop.

If answer is zero or positive enter result of calculation at this point * in column 1a and proceed to Step 2.

Step 2 Earnings above LEL up to and including ET

$$\left(\text{£}104.53 - \left(\frac{\text{£}5,304 \times 1}{52} \right) \right) - \left(\text{£}104.53 - \left(\frac{\text{£}5,980 \times 1}{52} \right) \right)^{\#} = \text{£}2.53 \quad (\text{enter in column 1b})$$

If answer is negative treat as zero.

If answer is zero no NICs due and column 1b should be zero filled. Stop.

If answer is positive enter in column 1b and proceed to Step 3.

Step 3 Earnings above ET up to and including UEL

$$\left(\pounds 104.53 - \left(\frac{\pounds 5,980 \times 1}{52} \right) \right)^{\#} - \left(\pounds 104.53 - \left(\frac{\pounds 39,000 \times 1}{52} \right) \right)^{\#} = \pounds 0.00$$

(no NICs due – zero fill column 1c)

If answer is negative treat as zero.

If answer is zero no NICs due and column 1c should be zero filled.

Steps 4 to 10 are not applicable.

Although no NICs are due as earnings have reached or exceeded the LEL, they must be recorded on the T11 as follows:

	1a	1b	1c	1d	1e
A	£102	£2.53	£0.00	£0.00	£0.00

Example 2

An employee earns £800 a week and pays standard not contracted-out NIC

Category A NICs

Step 1 Earnings up to and including LEL

$$\left(GP - \left(\frac{LEL \times p}{w/m} \right)^* \right) =$$

11. DIRECTOR'S NIC CALCULATION FORMULAE

- 9.1 For National Insurance purposes, Company Directors are classified as office holders and, under Section 2(1) of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992 (as applied to the Island), office holder's fall into the definition of 'employed earner'. As such, provided their earnings reach appropriate levels, they are liable for Class 1 NICs.
- 9.2 The earnings period for calculating NICs is usually determined by the interval between payments. For example an employee who is monthly paid will have a monthly earnings period. However, to calculate NICs for directors you must use either:
- an annual earnings period, or
 - a pro-rata annual earnings period.
- 9.3 This applies regardless of the actual interval between payments.
- 9.4 Under the Regulation 8(6) of the Social Security (Contributions) Regulations 2001 (as applied to the Island), contributions can now be deducted on a weekly/monthly basis and the annual calculation completed at the end of the tax year to confirm the correct amount has been paid. Any subsequent amendments are then made to the Deductions Working Sheet, Form T11 or Substitute.
- 9.5 The following calculation formulae set out the basic calculations for Director's NICs, using an annual or pro rata annual earnings period.

13. CALCULATION OF MINIMUM PAYMENTS FOR EMPLOYERS WITH CONTRACTED OUT MONEY PURCHASE SCHEMES.

13.1 How to work out minimum payments using the exact percentage method

Minimum payments are the difference between the not contracted-out and the contracted-out rates of NICs on earnings between LEL and the UEL. The difference is known as the contracted-out rebate.

The total minimum payment is 3%, which is made up of:

employee share 1.6% of earnings between the LEL and the UEL, less any employee's NIC rebate made available to the employer.

employer share 1.4% of earnings between the LEL and the UEL, plus any employee's NIC rebate made available to the employer.

13.2 When the employer has had the benefit of either part or all of the employee's NIC rebate, then the employer is also liable for an equivalent amount in addition to 1.4% of earnings between the LEL and the UEL.

2011/2012 earnings limits are:

weekly	Lower Earnings Limit	£102
	Earnings Threshold	£115
	Upper Earnings Limit	£750
monthly	Lower Earnings Limit	£442
	Earnings Threshold	£498
	Upper Earnings Limit	£3250

13.3 Employer Pays Employee's share of Minimum Payment

The employer must pay the full Minimum Payment to the scheme i.e. 3% of earnings between the LEL and the UEL.

13.4 Employer Deducts Employee's share of Minimum Payment from Employee

If you deduct the employee's share of the Minimum Payment from the employee you must work out the employee's and employer's share of the minimum payment separately, then make an adjustment to reflect any amount of NIC rebate not available to the employee.

Employee's share

1. If the employee's gross pay is:
 - Equal to or less than the UEL, subtract the LEL from the exact gross pay
 - Above the UEL, subtract the LEL from the UEL
2. Multiply by 1.6%. Round the resulting amount to the nearest penny, 0.5p rounded down.
3. Deduct any NIC rebate not available to the employee.

Employer's share

4. If the employee's gross pay is:
 - Equal to or less than the UEL, subtract the LEL from the exact gross pay
 - Above the UEL, subtract the LEL from the UEL
5. Multiply by 1.4%. Round the resulting amount to the nearest penny, 0.5p rounded down.
6. Add any employee's NIC rebate made available to the employer.

Total Minimum Payment

7. Add together the results of steps 3 and 6.
