About this Notice

This Notice draws attention in convenient form to measures designed to impose restrictive measures in respect of Tunisia.

This Notice provides guidance on aspects of the measures having effect in the Isle of Man, and should be read in conjunction with any order or regulations giving effect to those measures in the Island.

The Treasury has appointed its Customs and Excise Division to act for the purpose of enforcing sanctions measures. Accordingly, certain powers have been delegated by the Treasury to the Division.

Enquiries concerning this Notice should be addressed to the address given below and marked for the attention of the Sanctions Officer.

Direction

The Customs and Excise Division, as agent for the Treasury, directs that any funds held for or on behalf of the individuals or entities named in the published lists having effect in the Island must not be made available, except under the authority of a licence in writing from the Treasury.

Any funds should be blocked or frozen and the details reported to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

All persons in business or a profession in the Island, including financial institutions, must check whether they maintain any account, or otherwise hold or control funds or economic resources, for individuals or entities included in the lists and, if so, they should freeze the account, funds or economic resources and report their findings to the Financial Intelligence Unit.

Any person, entity or body with information that would facilitate compliance with the sanctions Regulation(s) must supply such information to the Financial Intelligence Unit and co-operate in any verification of the information.

Reports of accounts and amounts frozen should be made using THEMIS; however, if you do not have access to this reporting system, you should use the appropriate form on the FIU website.

Introduction

1. On 31 January 2011 the Council of the European Union decided to adopt restrictive measures against persons held responsible for misappropriation of state funds in Tunisia.
- 1A. The Treasury or any other person authorised by the Treasury, such as the Financial Intelligence Unit can serve a written notice on anyone to whom the measures apply, requiring them to furnish them with any information in their possession or control, or produce any document in their possession or control, for the purpose of allowing the Treasury to ensure compliance with, or detect evasion of, the sanctions.

Failure to furnish such information or documents without reasonable excuse is an offence. Providing false information is also an offence, as is providing false information for the purposes of obtaining a licence (or failing to comply with any condition of the licence).

EU sanctions imposed

2. Consequently, on 31 January 2011 the EU adopted Council Decision (EU) No. 2011/72/CFSP which provided that all funds and economic resources belonging to, owned, held or controlled by persons responsible for misappropriation of state funds, and natural and legal persons or entities associated with them, should be frozen. An Annex to the Decision listed those affected by the restrictions. The Annex only listed—

- Mr Zine el-Abidine Ben Hamda Ben Ali; and
- his wife, Mrs Leila Bent Mohammed Trabelsi.

3. At the same time as publishing the Council Decision the EU also published a Notice advising those affected by the restrictive measures how they might appeal. The Notice said that such appeals to—

The Council of the European Union
General Secretariat
Rue de la Loi/Wetstraat 175
1048 Bruxelles/Brussels
Belgique/Belge

The Notice also drew attention of those affected to the option of challenging the effect of the Council Decision before the General Court of the European Union.

4. Council Decision 2011/72/CFSP did not have any direct effect in the Isle of Man.
5. The addition of interest or other payments to frozen accounts was permitted by the 2011 Council Decision.

The Council Decision amended the earlier decision, and added many new names to the list of those affected by its restrictive measures.

The Council Regulation also placed restrictive measures on persons, entities and bodies alleged to be responsible for the misappropriation of state assets. Annex 1 to this new Regulation listed a number of persons subject to its restrictions.

6. Article 2 of Regulation 101/2011/EU provided that all funds and economic resources belonging to, owned, held or controlled by listed persons (“designated persons”) should be frozen; and no funds or economic resources should be made available to them, directly or indirectly. It prohibited any participation, knowingly and intentionally, in activities the object or effect of which was, directly or indirectly, to circumvent the restrictions.
7. Council Regulation 101/2011/EU was given effect in the Island by order and the applied Regulation took effect in the Isle of Man from 4 March 2011.
- 7A. On 26 November 2012, the EU adopted Council Regulation (EU) No 1100/2012 which provided for the release of frozen funds under certain defined circumstances, and also allowed for their release where necessary for the purpose of assisting in the recovery of misappropriated assets. This Regulation was applied by order in the Island on 14 December 2012.

Funds and economic resources

8. For the purpose of the applied Council Regulation, "funds" means financial assets and benefits of every kind, including (but not limited to)—
- cash, cheques, claims on money, drafts, money orders and other payment instruments;
 - deposits with financial institutions or other entities, balances on accounts, debts and debt obligations;
 - publicly- and privately-traded securities and debt instruments, including stocks and shares, certificates representing securities, bonds, notes, warrants, debentures and derivative contracts;
 - interest, dividends or other income or on value accruing from or generated by assets;
 - credit, right of set-off, guarantees, performance bonds or other financial commitments;
 - letters of credit, bills of lading, bills of sale;
 - documents evidencing an interest in funds or financial resources.

"Economic resources" means assets of every kind, whether tangible or intangible, movable or immovable, which are not funds but which may be used to obtain funds, goods or services.

Frozen accounts

9. All funds and economic resources belonging to, held or controlled by designated persons held by banks, building societies, stockbrokers, accountants etc must be frozen. No funds or economic resources may be made available to a designated person unless permitted by a licence from the Treasury, except that the following are permitted—
- adding to frozen accounts of interest or other earnings;
 - adding to frozen accounts payments due under contracts, agreements or obligations that arose or were concluded before the date on which the person was subject to sanctions in the Island;
 - adding to frozen accounts transfers from other sources.
10. Financial and credit institutions must notify the Financial Intelligence Unit immediately if they have a frozen account, and if they receive transfers from other sources into frozen accounts.

Licences

11. The Treasury may licence the release or the making available of funds or economic resources where—
- necessary for the basic needs of designated persons and their immediate family (including payments for foodstuffs, rent or mortgage, medicines and medical treatment, taxes, insurance premiums and public utility charges);
 - exclusively for reasonable professional fees or the reimbursement of expenses incurred in connection with the provision of legal services;
 - exclusively for payment of fees or service charges for the routine holding or maintenance of frozen funds or economic resources;
 - for extraordinary expenses;
 - exclusively to satisfy claims secured by a lien or judgment established prior to the date that the person involved became a designated person - but only if not for the benefit of a designated person and not contrary to public policy.
