NOTE:

This form can be used by married couples/civil partners to elect for joint taxation and/or to nominate one spouse/civil partner as the addressee for general correspondence and refund cheques. To qualify for joint taxation this form must be completed and returned to the Division by 31 December in that income tax year. General correspondence excludes tax return forms, assessments demands and other legal documents which will continue to be addressed to both spouses/civil partners. In the absence of a nomination for one spouse/civil partner to act as addressee, all correspondence issued by the Income Tax Division will be addressed to both spouses/civil partners.

Please note that with effect from 6 April 2006 married couples and from 6 April 2011 civil partners who are jointly taxed, will be jointly and severally liable for their income tax affairs. Both spouses/civil partners will be jointly liable for any amounts of income tax that may become due and both spouses/civil partners will be required to sign the annual tax return and other forms that may be issued by the Income Tax Division. Further details can be obtained from the Income Tax Division.

If you wish to be independently taxed please contact the Division for further details.
