Notes – Pension income - application for relief from Isle of Man income tax

Purpose of the form

The purpose of this form is to enable individuals who are resident in a country with which the Isle of Man has a relevant agreement to apply to receive their Isle of Man source pension without the deduction of Isle of Man income tax or to claim a repayment of such tax previously deducted. A relevant agreement is one which provides for relief from Isle of Man income tax on pension income arising in the Isle of Man.

If you do not send the completed form to the Income Tax Division, or should your pension be one which is not covered by an agreement, no changes can be made and you will continue to be liable to the full amount of Isle of Man income tax.

Taxation Agreements

The Isle of Man has entered into taxation agreements with a number of countries which provide for relief from Isle of Man income tax on certain types pension income arising in the Isle of Man. The relief available varies from one agreement to another. Full details are included the text of each agreement and can be found on the Income Tax Division's website www.gov.im/incometax

Completing the form

One of the requirements for relief under an agreement is that the taxation authorities in your country of residence regard you as resident there for tax purposes. Some agreements also require you to be subject to tax in your country of residence before relief can given in the Isle of Man. Therefore, you must send this form to the tax authorities in your country of residence in order for the section at the bottom of page one to be completed.

The tax authorities in your country of residence will then either send the form direct to the Isle of Man Income Tax Division or return it to you for onward submission to the address shown at the top of this form.

PERSONAL CIRCUMSTANCES

Please complete all of the questions. If you can not complete the answers in the space provided then please use an additional piece of paper and submit it with this form.

CLAIM FOR RELIEF AT SOURCE

This section should be completed if you wish to claim for relief from Isle of Man income tax at source on future pension payments. If your claim is accepted the Isle of Man Income Tax Division will instruct the person paying your pension to stop deducting Isle of Man income tax. If your claim for relief at source cannot be accepted you can still claim a repayment (see below).

If your claim for relief is accepted you must notify the Isle of Man Income Tax Division immediately if there is any change to the information provided in this form.

Please note that for pensions in respect of previous government service, the source country will generally retain primary taxing rights under most taxation agreements.

CLAIM FOR REPAYMENT OF TAX DEDUCTED FROM PAYMENTS ALREADY RECEIVED

If you have already received pension payments from which Isle of Man income tax has been deducted and you wish to claim a repayment please complete this section.

Proof of the Isle of Man income tax deducted from payments already received (such as a T14 or a letter from the pension scheme administrator) must be provided and should be submitted to the Isle of Man Income Tax Division with this form.

If your claim is accepted the Isle of Man income tax deducted will be repaid to you. The Isle of Man Income Tax Division will either instruct the person paying you your pension to make the repayment to you or will send you the repayment direct.

Other information

DATES OF ADJUSTMENTS / REFUNDS

If your claim for a repayment is successful the earliest date from which a repayment can be made is the latest of the following:

- the date on which you became resident in your country of residence for tax purposes;
- the date the payments of the relevant income started, or
- the date on which the relevant taxation agreement came into effect.

SIGNING THE FORM

You must read and understand the declaration before signing the form personally. Your tax adviser can not sign the form on your behalf.

An executor or administrator of an estate, or a person acting with power of attorney, may sign the form on another individual's behalf.
